New Quota of $12,000 Set for Flood Relief

Red Cross Chapter Makes Another Appeal to County as Suffering in Stricken Area Mounts, Immediate Action Imperative To Meet Crisis

A new quota of $12 000 in cash for flood relief was set for immediate attainment today by the Marion County Red Cross chapter as hourly reports from flood areas indicated a rapidly increasing need

The new goal is only temporary in view of the vast destruction which may bring further appeal as the flood moves southward Harry F Margwarth chapter chairman said today

Immediate response is urged Present methods of contributing will continue Money will be taken at the chapter office in the Y M C A buildings on South State street it may be placed in containers in stores and banks or a volunteer will call for cash or check at homes if the office is notified The phone number is 2439

Marion city and county residents already have given $7 120 to flood relief in what Red Cross officials termed the most wholehearted outpouring of money made in any drive ever staged in the county

Twenty members of the executive committee of the Marion county Red Cross chapter meeting in special session with the chairman Harry F Margwarth yesterday in the chapter office concurred in setting the temporary goal in view of the hourly increasing need and of the telegram received from National Chairman Cary T Grayson appealing to maximum generosity of the American people to give unlimited funds

Supplies Needed

Bedding flashlights new clothing hot water bottles oil book stoves in good repair medical supplies and canned and non perishable provisions still are in great demand in the flood districts and are the principal contributions desired by the relief agencies other than the Red Cross

Money is being sent daily to the national Red Cross from Marion county and as funds continue to pour from the chapter office other relief agencies are continuing the flow of provisions clothing and supplies to Zanesville Cincinnati and Columbus

All money raised by the Red Cross is going to the sufferers it was emphasized today Not a penny of the money contributed is retained in Marion

Residents of the city and county were warned today against any person making solicitations for money in the residential districts or by telephone in the name of the Red Cross

The Red Cross solicited in the business district Monday We have no representatives in the residential or business districts and we are not telephoning for money Mr Margwarth said today as soon as it was brought to his attention that a number of East Side residents are being contacted by a man asking for Red Cross flood relief funds

W D Brown secretary of the Marion Chamber of Commerce came to the assistance of the executive board today by arranging for voluntary contribution in all plants and factories in the city and county all granges and other farm group

Benefit Shows Today

Proceeds from benefit shows at the State theater this afternoon and tonight and from a program of play and music by the WPA emergency school dramatic and music groups at Central Junior High school tonight will go to the Red Cross

A three and a half ton trailer truck went from the American Legion Dugout to Columbus last night filled to capacity with canned provisions bedding and clothing The Legion's collections are estimated to exceed 14 tons. The Junior Chamber of Commerce sent a truck load of food and clothing to the Legion headquarters in Columbus yesterday and another cargo was to be sent today in addition to a sum of money collected for the Red Cross chapter here.

The Salvation Army's third truck of canned foods and clothing will go direct to Army headquarters in Cincinnati Friday morning. A heavy load of provisions and clothing went to

CINCINNATIANS BEGIN CLEANUP

Artesian Wells Yield Drinking Water But Not Enough Some Homes Lighted

RED CROSS SPEEDS AID

Disease Still Threatens But No Typhoid Found Business Remains Crippled

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI Jan 28—Cincinnati stood ready today with mop muscle and high determination as the Ohio river still far out of its banks slowly but surely released its blighting grip

Out of the despair and destruction which the river brought grew a rehabilitation committee bent on making a speedy cleanup of the hapless city

Precious water flowed into the water mains from artesian wells —millions of gallons of it but still not enough

Some houses long dark glowed with a light or two again last night but the power shortage still was acute

The smooth running Red Cross machine helped thousands of refugees to adopt a brighter outlook New come and carry water stations made life easier

Disease Still a Threat

The threat of disease lingered but Dr Richard S Austin health co ordinator said there was no typhoid in the city at present He added the monotonous but important phrase boil the water

Then thousand units of typhoid vaccine reached Cincinnati from the state health department in Columbus early today and work of immunizing Red Cross workers other flood emergency workers and refugees began at once

Of the total 2 000 units were held in reserve for the use of private physicians

All however was not hope and good cheer A fifth of the city still lay under brown water Business was crippled Hundreds of houses sagged in their watery beds

MOONEY'S FREEDOM APPEAL REJECTED

Court Referee Says Prisoner Was Convicted Fairly After Parade Bombing

By The Associated Press

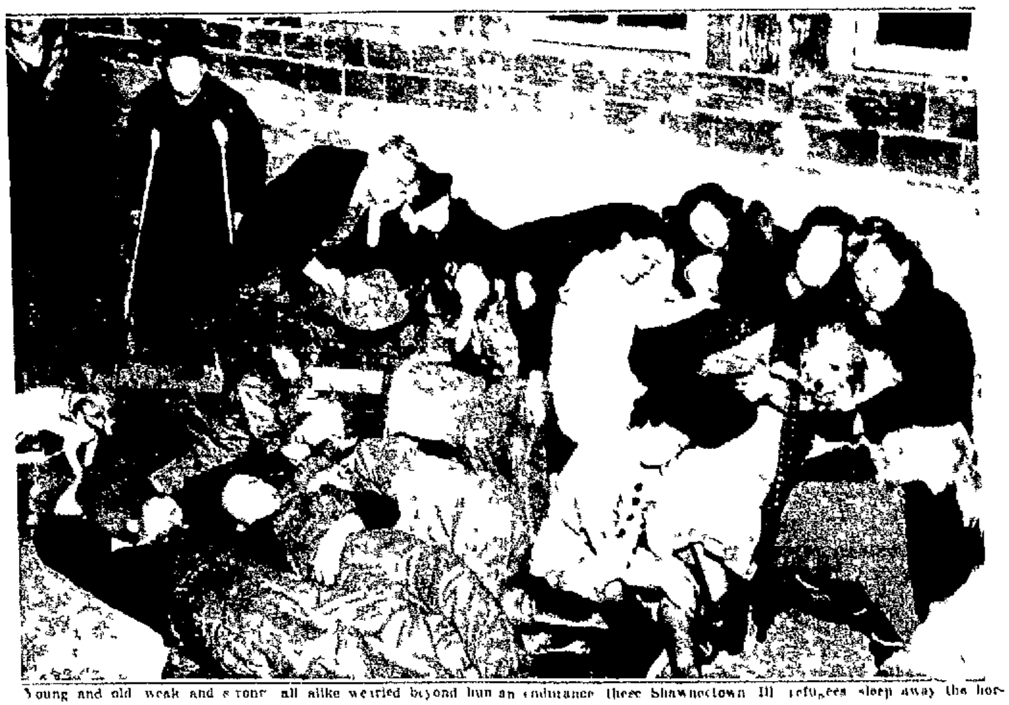
SAN FRANCISCO Jan 28—A E Shaw special referee of California supreme court held today that Thomas J Mooney was fairly convicted of the 1916 preparedness day bombing here

In his special finding of fact filed with the supreme court today Shaw ruled with the attorney general's office that Mooney was not entitled to release on habeas corpus from prison Mooney has served 20 years of a life term for the bombing in which 10 persons were killed and 50 injured

It is established by the preponderance of evidence it was found that the petitioner had a fair and impartial trial and that he was not denied any right or privilege guaranteed or granted him by the Constitution of the United States or of the state of California or by any statute of the United States or the state of California.

It is established by the preponderance that petitioner was not a victim of a frameup nor was he convicted as the result of any improper act of any kind on the part of the district attorney or any of his assistants or on the part of any person representing the state of California."

REFUGEES FORGET FLOOD'S HORROR IN SLEEP



Young and old weak and strong all alike wearied beyond human endurance these Shawneetown Ill refugees sleep away the horrors behind them Thousands of words couldn't tell the story this picture does Note particularly the crippled woman at the left—literally asleep on her feet

Controversy Looms Over Municipal Court Move

Bill Introduced Into Legislature To Raise Bailiff's Salary Draws Fire From Mayor Smith

Introduction of a bill in the Ohio senate today that would increase the salary of the municipal court bailiff in Marion and make mandatory the employment of a deputy clerk in the court began what promised to become a heated controversy in municipal official circles

The Associated Press reported in a news dispatch from Columbus that John P Bower of Rushsylvania, senator from the Thirteenth Thirty first senatorial district of which Marion is a part introduced the bill It would increase the salary of the municipal court bailiff from $900 to $1 600 a year and change the present law saying the court clerk may appoint a deputy clerk or clerks to a phrase stating the clerk shall appoint a deputy clerk It was understood the proposal also would fix the deputy clerk's salary at a minimum of $1 500

This word immediately drew criticism in some quarters and support from other persons with indications that the bill will become a heated municipal issue

Favoring the bill are Judge Martin and virtually all members of the Marion County Bar association who signed a request that Senator Bower and County Representative Samuel Almendinger of Prospect seek amendment of Marion's municipal court act to bring about these changes

Heading the opposition to the proposal is Mayor Frederick C Smith who declared today when he learned of the bill that he will make every effort to oppose its adoption

Both sides outlined their principal arguments when reached by The Star

Immediate developments seemed

Toledo Glass Strike Ends with Pay Raise in Contract

By The Associated Press

TOLEDO O Jan 28—A normal supply of plate and safety glass was assured the automobile industry today with settlement of a strike at five plants of the Libbey-Owens Ford Glass Co

With signing of a new contract calling for a blanket wage increase of eight cents an hour, striking Federation of Flat Glass Workers returned to the factories to make ready for renewal of production

David H. Goodwillie executive vice president, estimated that laminated glass operations would be up to normal by Monday and would assure needs of automobile concerns, especially the General Motors Corp

The settlement, announced late yesterday, ended a strike in effect since midnight Dec. 15, except at the Ottawa, Ill., plant, where workers walked out earlier in sympathy with a strike of plants of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co

Both walkouts were called by the Glass Workers federation, an affiliate of John L. Lewis Committee for Industrial Organization, and tied up 90 per cent of the nation's flat glass production. The Pittsburgh strike, in effect since late in October, was settled last week on virtually the same terms.

DIKES BRACED ON MISSISSIPPI

Army Battles River Hoping To Conquer It and Avoid Mass Evacuation

By The Associated Press

MEMPHIS Tenn Jan 28—Army engineers raced time today in efforts to reinforce the Mississippi's vast levee system enough so next week's flood peak will not force evacuation of 500 000 persons

The army was laying plans to move all lowland dwellers within 20 miles of the river from Cairo Ill to New Orleans but the engineers clung to the hope the great untested dike system would make unnecessary the mass flight order

Flood deaths stood at 34 in Tennessee Arkansas and Mississippi today while more than 150 000 have been driven from home on the 2 000 000 acres flooded by the Mississippi and its smaller tributaries

Expect 62 Feet at Cairo

Engineers estimate the descent of the Ohio river's all time high crests will bring a 62 foot peak at Cairo about Feb 4 with Memphis getting a record peak of 55 feet four or five days later Memphis gauge was 44 today

Meteorologist William P Barrot veteran river observer at Cairo estimated however that Cairo's peak would be only 60 to 61 feet barely over the city's 60 foot sea wall

Along the 230 miles of embankment between Cairo and Memphis the first zone where the army plans wholesale evacuations in the event of emergency engineer crews toiled to strengthen soggy levees while Red Cross relief forces moved additional thousands out of the low lands

No crest waters have yet entered the district Col Reybold declared No levee anywhere is in a dangerous condition All levees still have a reasonable freeboard

Flee As Levee Breaks

He said the only unfavorable development yesterday was the collapse of a back levee at Mound City, Ill, where 600 men, 50 women and 175 CCC boys were removed to higher ground.

A spectacular battle was waged a few miles south of Tiptonville, Tenn, where the Mississippi threatened to blast a new channel across Snaky bend. Engineers said they were hopeful of preventing a crevasse which would isolate the little town of Beasle and flood Tiptonville and Ridgely

Another struggle continued near New Madrid, Mo., to save a weakened levee

With upwards of 12,000 refugees already in Memphis and an additional 25,000 expected, Mayor Watkins Overton was given unlimited power to spend money and commandeer supplies needed to care for them.

OHIO C. OF C. CALLS FLOOD CONFERENCE

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Jan 28—Alexander Thomson, president of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, called today a conference here Feb. 2 to consider conservation and flood control problems in the Ohio river valley

He invited representatives of state chambers of Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio and of local groups in the flood zone to attend.

MILLION MINUS HOMES AS OHIO FALLS SLOWLY

500 000 Still Endangered and Property Loss Set at More Than $400 000 000

THOUSANDS FLEE PADUCAH

Crest Awaited There While Cairo Contains Only Men Kept To Bolster Levee

By The Associated Press

The flooded Ohio river struggling like a captive serpent of fabulous strength sought escape against weakening levees today on its crawling descent to the Mississippi

The known dead stood at 293 the homeless passed the million mark an additional 500 000 were endangered and property loss was estimated at more than $400 000 000

Along the 1 000-mile ghost town trail the slowly receding waters lapped at empty houses in empty towns

The cost of rehabilitation now becoming of paramount interest in northern Ohio river valley communities where the worst apparently has passed drew estimates ranging into billions Officials said the average cost for cleaning and drying out a single flooded home was $250

New Dangers Arise

Fresh dangers cropped up by the dozens as the crest of the flood swung south

At Paducah Ky the next point of crisis Red Cross officials hurried to evacuate thousands of reluctant inhabitants in advance of the oncoming flood peak

Col Chat Rhodes U S army engineer warned of a 61 foot crest within the next 48 hours

Below at Cairo Ill only men remained in the island city to bolster the 60 foot sea wall against an expected four foot rise in the river Eight thousand —mostly women and children and the aged—already had fled

Levee Threatened

On the Mississippi river itself now beginning to stir uneasily under the vanguard lash of the Ohio's flood load the Milwood levee was threatened with collapse, endangering two counties

High water that poured Cairo when army engineers dynamited the Birds Point New Madrid fuse plug to relieve pressure of the beleaguered city rose steadily in the 131 000 acre spillway basin today Hundreds who were driven from their lowland homes huddled in concentration camps behind the basin's setback levee—and wondered if it would hold The answer was expected tonight

While federal life saving forces speeded mobilization for action in the deep south in the event the mighty Mississippi again conquers its banks high army officials at Washington D C expressed belief that the removal of families below Cairo could be confined to small low lying areas

Maj Gen Malin Craig U S army chief of staff said the possibility of general evacuation was remote

At New Orleans engineers hoped to divert a portion of the waters into Lake Pontchartrain

While the Ohio showed signs of loosening its grip upon a wide area between Pittsburgh and Cairo Ill, it became apparent the full story of the havoc would not be known for days

Bury Dead in Trenches

Louisville, once gay derby town, now desolate buried its dead in trenches as the flood waters began to subside The number of lives lost was a matter of conjecture Mayor Neville Miller said there were 200 dead after the city's health officer admitted the bodies of 136 victims had been recovered.

Tension eased as the river started to recede, although electricity was increasing electricity was shut off, water rationed and sanitation problems increased hourly.

The threat of disease lingered in Cincinnati but there was hope and good cheer as rehabilitation efforts were begun. Water flowed into the mains from artesian wells after a grave shortage but the supply was still short of the city's needs

Ready to Evacuate Valley

The war department was advised its forces were ready on a moment's notice to evacuate by land and water residents of any areas threatened with inundation when the flood crest pours down the Mississippi next week

Reassuring words came however, from engineers who said the river's billion dollar dike system from Cairo to the gulf showed no signs of weakness and hope was expressed wholesale evacuation would be unnecessary

The immediate battleground in the struggle to control the rain swollen torrent in its surge to the Gulf of Mexico centered around Cairo nestling on a point at the confluence of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

During the night, Mound City, Ill., surrendered to the flood waters

More News Comes Through from Victims of Flood

Arrival of flood victims in Marion included Mrs. Charles Moritz and three children of Portsmouth who are at the home of Mrs. Moritz's parents Dr and Mrs. E H Morgan on South Greenwood street. Mr Moritz accompanied his family to Marion late yesterday afternoon and returned early this morning to resume his work with the Ohio Power company

The Moritz family arrived about 6 p. m after a five hour trip from Portsmouth to Columbus by way of Jackson and Washington, C. H They were accompanied to Columbus by a forest ranger and a teacher in the schools at Portsmouth

The family together with scores of other Portsmouth residents left the city in compliance with an order issued by the mayor of the city demanding that all persons with relatives outside the flood area evacuate the town for health and sanitary reasons

Mr and Mrs Moritz whose home is located on a hill were not in the flooded area of the city and suffered no inconvenience from the disaster aside from lack of water The water is turned on for two hours each day Mrs Moritz said

Mr Moritz, together with other employes of the Ohio Power company is working 21 out of the 24 hours

HEARS FROM FAMILY IN INDIANA TOWN

A telegram and letter yesterday brought a cheering message to an anxious daughter here that all the members of her immediate family and relatives at Lawrenceburg, Ind escaped unhurt but minus their worldly possessions when that city was inundated by Ohio river flood waters Friday morning

Miss Mabel Hunter employed at the residence of Mr and Mrs W L Johnson of 818 Mt Vernon avenue received the messages from her parents Mr and Mrs Louis Hunter after waiting four days for the first word from them since flood practically isolated the city

Miss Hunter first telegraphed her parents Saturday night but the message was delayed and it was not until yesterday that a reply, taken by boat 21 miles up the river to Cincinnati was relayed to Marion The letter Miss Hunter said apparently came by the same route.

In it, her mother described briefly the family's peril during the flood crisis The Hunter home located within a stone's throw of a 64 foot levee which held back the raging waters was completely submerged after the levee broke with scarcely enough warning for the residents to flee to higher ground the letter stated

Confidence in the levee led residents to remain in their homes and only a few of the 7 000 residents affected had moved before the levee broke Mrs Hunter related She said that the family including four brothers and a sister of Miss Hunter's were now quartered in one of the city's four distilleries

REPORT CHILDREN SAFE IN FLOOD ZONE

Mr and Mrs John Schott of Big Island received reassuring news yesterday afternoon from their three children who are located in the flood zone in Kentucky and Cincinnati

In a letter received from their daughter Miss Alice Schott a nurse in the government hospital at Fort Thomas Ky she told them of the safety of herself and her brothers Ted and John W Schott who are employed in Cincinnati At no time have any one of them been in danger she said as they all are located in territories above the flood line

Miss Schott also telephoned her parents Sunday night from Fort Thomas. The letter mailed at 6 p. m Tuesday at Newport, Ky reached here yesterday afternoon

NO DANGER AT HOSPITAL

Marion residents have received information that the state hospital in Gallipolis is not in danger of being flooded although a large part of the city is under water. The hospital is located on the outskirts of the city far from the river The superintendent of the hospital in a telephone conversation with a Marion resident advised none of the occupants are in distress

ADMISSION TO HOME REDUCED FOR PUPILS

J F Dombaugh, Manager Announces Cut for Period Starting Friday

The Harding home and museum on Mt Vernon avenue will be opened to Marion school pupils at a reduced rate beginning Friday and continuing through February to give them an opportunity to get first hand information about the public service of the Marion man who was elevated to the nation's highest office

J Fred Dombaugh manager of the home announced today that Friday has been selected as the start of the period because it marks the anniversary of the birth of President McKinley. The period set aside for reduced rates for pupils includes the birthday anniversaries also of Presidents Franklin D Roosevelt Washington Lincoln and Harrison

The regular admission price of 25 cents will be reduced during the period to 10 cents for Marion school pupils Mr Dombaugh said

More than 400 persons took advantage of a similar reduction for a short time in 1930 he said

The home as in the past will be open in evenings and on Sundays

Elbows on the Table O K? Yes, but Don't Overdo It

By JOAN DURHAM
Associated Press Writer

THE general [illegible] table a number of [illegible] be[illegible] outmoded [illegible]

[illegible] for instance—you shouldn't [illegible] about cutting salad [illegible] Or eating [illegible]

There are [illegible] mind that [illegible] friends dine [illegible] how they always manage to slip our minds afterward—until the next time we dine out

Watch Your Elbows

About the elbows. You may put them on the table for a moment or so—if you're leaning forward to speak to someone. But don't use them as a substitute for your spinal column. The minute you discover you've a permanent lolling, it's time to call a halt

Although it's permissible to cut your salad with a knife—if there's something in it that can't be cut with a fork—be careful to choose a silver bladed knife. (Never use a steel bladed steak knife.)

Now about fingers instead of forks. You [illegible] to get your hands greasy [illegible]. For the reason you'll have to use [illegible] of the [illegible] canapes and crisply fried [illegible] however may be always picked up in your fingers. Just use your common sense. And a doughnut—check what your hostess [illegible] can

Don't Comment On Food

Wait until your hostess starts eating before you do. As the various [illegible] are passed—if there are so many you can't take them all—you should take a [illegible] of each. You don't have to eat everything on your plate. If you [illegible] like what you have just eaten [illegible] it and let it alone—without any comment

In deciding what silver to [illegible] up next—remember [illegible] about beginning outside and working toward the plate

Sharp-bladed knives are for cutting—so don't spread with them. And when you [illegible] your knife back on your [illegible] turn the sharp edge toward [illegible] finished and your plate ready to be removed place knife and fork together enough from the edge of [illegible] so they can't slide off

And (faux pas of all faux pas) never leave your spoon in [illegible] coffee cup

HIRAM JOHNSON FUNERAL

Commissioners Set Aside $225,155 for 1937 Needs

Annual Appropriation for Year Shows Increase of $32 [illegible].52 Over Total for Last Year.

[illegible] financial system [illegible] as coun- [illegible] their [illegible] funds [illegible] The total [illegible] $225,155, exactly [illegible] by County [illegible] This is [illegible] $192,907.48 [illegible] the general fund [illegible]

The commissioners still have before them the distribution of $115,500 in the road and maintenance fund and the gas tax fund. These funds are used entirely for county roads and bridges and will probably be appropriated this week.

Of the 28 separate accounts for the various county offices and institutions, seven were less than last year, 16 more and five the same.

New items this year are $1,500 for advertising of delinquent tax lands in line with the county's campaign to collect approximately $355,000 of past due real estate taxes. Also new is the appropriation of $2,500 for a general reappraisal of real estate in the county, required by state law every six years. The last was in 1931. County Auditor Harry Mounts has previously estimated the cost of the reappraisal at $15,000, but at present is awaiting action of the state legislature on a movement to have the reappraisal postponed.

Want Reappraisal Postponed

Mr. Mounts is also delaying starting on the tremendous task until other counties give some indication of their intentions, and the possibility of a larger appropriation from county commissioners. County auditors throughout the state are generally opposed to the reappraisal and have asked the legislature to postpone it.

The children's home, which was warned by officials of the state division of welfare that there is danger of losing its license unless medical service is improved, received $17,400 this year, $3,100 less than it asked. Elmer L. Barkley, superintendent, said in submitting his request for $20,500 to the commissioners. "These are honest estimates and any reduction will mean an impairment of that particular fund."

He has asked $900 for medical services, dentistry, medicines and hospitalization, and was granted $200. It may be possible, commissioners said, to shift money from some of the other funds of the home, to caring for the medical needs of the children. Last year the home received $14,030 or $3,370 less than this year. State officials previously stated that $20,000 is a reasonable annual sum to be spent at the home.

Mr. Barkley, in commenting on the appropriation, said the amount will "positively not run us for the year. He pointed to the rising cost of food and supplies which he said would easily require at least the $20,000 figure. Last year the home spent $16,000, approximately $2,000 having been granted the home by commissioners later in the year when the regular annual appropriation was exhausted, Mr. Barkley said.

The $200 alloted the home this year for physicians' services and other medical care is woefully inadequate, Mr. Barkley declared. At least $900 will be needed to meet the minimum state requirements for health service, and if these are not met, the home is in danger of losing its license to take new inmates, he said. Last year $250 was appropriated for this service.

He complained the commissioners had not consulted with him when considering his written request for $20,500 and that they could not possibly know the need for that amount at the home.

Funds for Other Offices

Appropriations for other offices and institutions follow with the appropriations for last year in parenthesis:

Commissioners, $7,096.76 ($6,596.76); general office expenses, telephone service, hauling, etc., $1,215 ($915.) courthouse and jail, $14,575.45 ($15,390); county home, $16,160 ($16,500); municipal court, $1,925 ($1,875).

Under charity the commissioners appropriated $18,000 (last year, $13,300) as follows: $2,500 for crippled children, $3,200 for blind relief, $8,000 for tuberculosis and $300 miscellaneous.

Miscellaneous county expenses totalled $7,155.18 ($7,037.16, including money for housing county criminals in houses of correction of other counties, housing of county's insane, workmen's compensation and examiners for county offices.

Soldiers' burial, $860 ($860); soldiers' relief, $8,300 ($8,300); emergencies $593.38; agriculture, $8,121.59 ($6,075), including $2,275 for societies and farmers' institutes, $3,000 for tuberculosis eradication in cattle, $2,000 for state extension work.

County auditor, $17,650 ($15,670); assessing personal property, $1,200 ($1,200); reappraisement, $2,500; board of elections, $12,158; ($14,008;); county treasurer, $12,100 ($12,030); county recorder, $6,050 ($4,950); prosecuting attorney, $6,675 ($5,375); court of appeals, $265.56; common pleas court, $9,990 ($10,140); probate court, $11,010 ($10,050); juvenile court, $11,480 ($5,480, the increase being due to a larger number of mothers' pensions); detention home, $1,500 ($900); clerk of courts, $7,356 ($7,645); coroner, $100 ($120); sheriff, $12,495 ($11,770);

Surveyor, $12,064 ($10,724); ditches, $800. The greater share of the funds to be spent through the surveyor's office for roads and bridges is yet to be appropriated.

Dog and Kennel Fund

From the dog and kennel fund $7,600 was appropriated. Last year the figure was $6,169.48. The revenue is entirely from sale of dog licenses.

The funds which the commissioners apropriated were based on the actual balance on hand Jan. 1 and on an 80 per cent collection of taxes. The $225,155 in the general fund consists of a balance of $20,000 and expected revenue from the following sources: $130,000 from general property tax; $10,000 from general personal tax; $12,155 from general sales tax; $2,000 from classified tax; $1,000 from cigaret tax; and $50,000 from fees and miscellaneous.

Metropolitan Opera Star
tells why he prefers a light smoke

Lauritz Melchior says:

"The hardest test I can give a cigarette is to try its effect on my throat after hours of intense rehearsal. I've found that a light smoke meets this test. And so, although I'm not a constant smoker, I favor Lucky Strike for the sake of my throat. And, incidentally, so does my wife. When we go back to Europe we never forget to take along a good supply of Luckies."

"THE CREAM OF THE CROP"

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Mr. Melchior verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen, and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. MT. GILEAD TO OPEN POSTOFFICE MARCH 4

Bids Being Taken To Remove Supplies from Old to New Building.

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, Jan. 28—The new federal building under construction here will be completed March 3, according to J. W. Edwards, the superintendent for the contracting firm, Gibbons & Grable Co. of Canton.

Carl V. Beebe, postmaster, said today that unless there is some change in the plans the new postoffice will be in operation March 4.

Bids are now being taken at the postoffice for the removal of all supplies and equipment from the present location in South Main street to the new building. New equipment to be installed here will be received before Feb. 24, Beebe said.

The contractor is now working a night force. The total cost of the new building, equipment and site is $70,000. The building itself will cost nearly $50,000.

Retractable side wheels have been added to a motorcycle by a Seattle inventor to make riding safer on slippery streets and to enable the motorcycle to be towed readily.

Officer Builds Tables And Smashes Them Too

This photograph from the Toledo Times shows Patrolman Edward Kline of the Toledo police department explaining how he built the inlay library table to Miss Betty Weisberg, clerk in a furniture store where the table was on display.

Former Marion and Edison Man Finds Relief From Work as Toledo Patrolman.

WHEN he's not busy smashing gambling tables as a member of the morals squad of the Toledo police department, Edward Kline, a former Marion resident and a native of Marengo, turns his expert hand to making tables of a different sort, according to a recent article which gave him prominent mention in the Toledo Times. Kline recently took part in a widespread drive to break up gambling places in Toledo.

One of the most recent products of his handiwork, an inlay library table containing 7,782 pieces of wood, is pictured above. Kline spent some 205 hours, he estimated, in completing the table which he presented to Mrs. Frank Adams of near Edison, as a Christmas gift.

The 31-year-old patrolman was born near Marengo and for a number of years lived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adams, who reside one-half mile west of Edison. The table, five feet long and slightly more than three feet wide, contains 10 different kinds of wood including walnut, mahogany, maple, oak, butternut, gumwood, fir and birch.

After residing at the Adams home, Kline was in Marion a year before going to Toledo in 1925. He has been a member of the police department there for the last 11 years. He is married and the father of two children. Kline visits at the Adams home at Edison often.

STOP THAT COLD THE FIRST DAY!

Give It No Chance to Survive Thru the Use of Half-way Measures!

Let no cold get the start on you! The so-called "common cold" is the start of more serious trouble than anything else.

The moment a cold appears, act to kill it, not merely to suppress it!

Depend on no half-way measures. A cold, being an internal infection, must be got at from the inside.

Treat a cold with a cold preparation, not with a medicine good for all kinds of ailments.

The treatment you want is Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine.

Bromo Quinine is a cold tablet, made expressly for the treatment of colds.

It is also internal treatment and of four important effects.

First, Bromo Quinine opens the bowels, a desirable step in the treatment of colds.

Second, it checks the infection in the system, a vital step.

Third, it relieves the headache and fever.

Fourth, it tones the system and helps fortify against further attack.

Bromo Quinine tablets now come sugar-coated as well as plain. The sugar-coated are exactly the same as the regular, except that the tablets are coated with sugar for palatability.

Take no chances with any cold! The moment you feel a cold coming on, go right to your druggist for a package of Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine.

Begin taking the tablets immediately, two every four hours. That procedure will usually break up a cold the first day and that's the speed you want.

Bromo Quinine contains nothing harmful and is safe to take. Ask for, and insist upon, Grove's Bromo Quinine.

The small cost may save you dollars in medical bills.

GALION MAY SUCCOR FLOOD REFUGEES

Special to The Star

GALION, Jan 28—The possibility of Galion giving shelter to 200 flood refugees who would be brought to Galion was discussed at a meeting of representatives of various organizations of the city Wednesday afternoon at the club rooms of the American Legion. Mayor W. M. King presided for the meeting.

At a meeting slated for 3 p. m. today, committees were to report on possible places to shelter the refugees. It was believed that the Galion armory and possibly several other buildings might be used.

"I KILLED TWO BIRDS...

"Sohio gave me Guaranteed Starting—and X-70 gives me the best winter mileage I've ever had!

"IT'S FAST—BUT ECONOMICAL!

"You'd think it was mid-summer the way my motor cracks into action and gives me full steam ahead without any fuss or bother warming it up. Full power and acceleration right from the start-off. Yet X-70 must have plenty of meat in it—for I'm getting the highest mileage I ever had in the wintertime."

Right you are, Sir! No longer is it necessary to sacrifice other gasoline qualities to get quick starting. Winter-grade X-70 also gives you all the other qualities that make it Ohio's year-around favorite—including the highest possible winter mileage. Use X-70—the gasoline that made Guaranteed Starting possible, and you'll get more out of your car this winter than ever before.

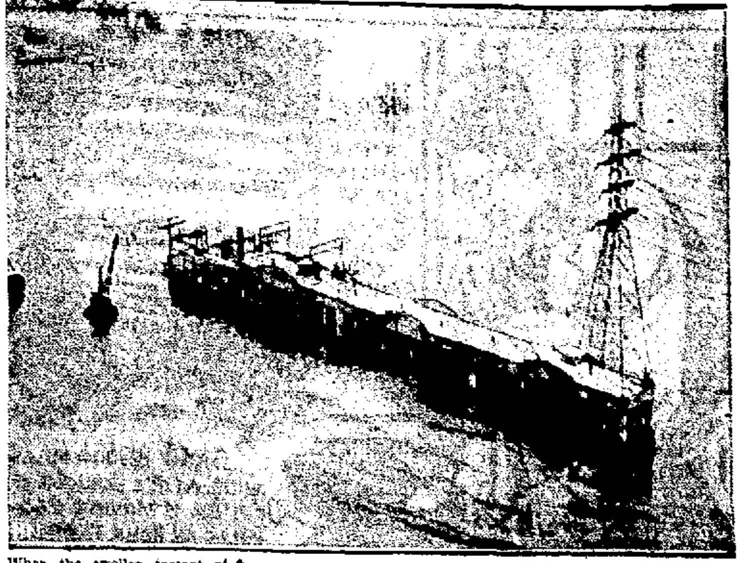
DARKNESS ADDS TO FLOOD TERRORS IN LOUISVILLE



When the swollen torrent of the Ohio river put out of commission all power plants at Louisville, the terrors of darkness were added to the other woes suffered by the 330,000 residents of the stricken city. This is a view of the great hydro-electric plant at the falls of the Ohio river.

Your Health

BY DR. R. S. COPELAND

Gout.

FEW HEALTH books nowadays have anything to say about gout. In fact, many of them make no mention of this disease. Yet, only a half century ago it was a common and dreaded affliction.

This annoying and painful disorder has almost disappeared within the past few years. Undoubtedly this can be attributed to our better knowledge of diet and the marked improvement in our general health habits. Yet, medical men occasionally encounter cases of gout, and in certain localities of various countries, there are still many who suffer with it.

It used to be believed that gout was exclusively a disease of the rich, afflicting only those who enjoyed luxurious living. For this reason it was originally spoken of as "the king of diseases and the disease of kings." As a matter of fact, it attacks the poor and all others who practice faulty diet habits.

Gout is not an infectious or contagious disease. It is due to a disturbance in the food handling processes, the so-called metabolism of the body. As a result of this failure of function, an excessive amount of uric acid is crowded into the system. These salts soon localize in the joints, set up irritation and inflammation and lead to the symptoms of gout.

Foods rich in uric acid and "purines," taken regularly for any length of time, result in uric acid deposits within the body. Individuals who indulge in a diet rich in meats, meat extracts, bouillons, sweet breads and kidneys will ultimately show some signs of gout if they have the slightest tendency to it.

The joint most commonly involved is that of the big toe. The victim is awakened at night with a severe and excruciating pain in the joint. The tissues become red, swollen and extremely painful. The pain becomes worse on the slightest pressure or movement.

In the more severe cases the victim may complain of great thirst, sickness at the stomach and vomiting. The symptoms may become so severe as to require the administration of an opiate.

It is certainly true in this disease that its prevention is far easier than its cure. It is now known that in the cure and prevention of this disease, diet is an all important factor. The excessive use of starch, sugar, fried foods, peppers, spices and pickles, as well as excesses of meat, must be avoided. A well-balanced diet, containing an abundance of fresh fruits and vegetables, is our best protection against gout and other disturbances of the so-called metabolism of the body.

EAGLES DISCUSS INITIATION PLANS

Plans for a district initiation at Kenton, Feb. 21, were discussed at the weekly meeting of the Buckeye Aerie No. 387 of F. O. Eagles, held last night in the lodge rooms on West Center street.

During the business session the lodge authorized a $25 contribution to the Red Cross fund for flood sufferers. It was voted that an attendance prize amounting to $25 also be given to the Red Cross. Philip Ebert of Chestnut street, winner of the award, added the prize to the contribution to flood sufferers.

Members of the Upper Sandusky lodge attended the meeting. Marion, Kenton, Upper Sandusky, Bucyrus and Carey lodges, which compose this district are to participate in the district initiation at Kenton.

AMATEURS ASSIST IN FLOOD DISASTER

Radio amateurs, veterans of many other disasters, are active in the Ohio valley flood handling emergency messages of all sorts day and night. At their request, the federal communications commission has restricted amateur bands temporarily between 3,500 and 4,000 kilocycles and between 1,715 and 2,000 to flood relief messages only.

Tonight's programs: Rep. Maury Maverick on "Is the General Welfare Constitutional" over NBC-WJZ at 7:45; Alexander Woollcott at 7:30 over WABC-CBS; Red Cross program at 8 over WJZ-NBC.

The radio guild will present "She Stoops to Conquer" tomorrow at 4 p. m. over WJZ-NBC.

PLANNING COUNCIL PREPARED FOR NYA

Members of the NYA organization held a luncheon meeting at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday noon for the purpose of organizing a planning council. Miss Alma L. Strauch of Marion, supervisor of the program in Marion, Crawford and Wyandot counties, and G. A. Brown of Sandusky, assistant district supervisor, addressed the meeting. It was planned to present suggestions for enlarging the Marion county NYA program at another meeting to be held at the Y in two weeks.

VILLAGES SEND AID TO FLOOD VICTIMS

Caledonia and Martel residents this week collected food, clothing and funds for southern Ohio flood sufferers, and shipped them direct to Columbus by truck Tuesday afternoon. American Legion Post No. 401 and auxiliary at Caledonia were in charge of collecting the contributions.

A truck load of clothing and provisions and approximately $93 was sent to Memorial hall in Columbus.

The Boy Scouts at Caledonia and merchants and residents in both Caledonia and Martel were thanked for their assistance in collecting the contribution by the Legion organization.

HELP KIDNEYS PASS 3 LBS. A DAY

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, lumbago, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

An Occasion For Celebration.

Tonight's industrial victory dinner of the Chamber of Commerce is an event of exceptional interest to all citizens of Marion. It will be essentially the celebration of a year of outstanding achievement in community progress, during which Marion's industrial resources were substantially expanded and economic conditions generally improved. All this means of course that all people living here will share in the increased benefits and opportunities which result from the city's forward movement. As a consequence, while attendance at the dinner is necessarily limited to a comparatively small percentage of the city's population all may justifiably feel that it is an occasion in which their welfare has a definite place.

Probably never in the city's history has value of the Chamber of Commerce been more convincingly demonstrated than in the past year. Realizing that the turning point in the country's economic situation had arrived leaders in the Chamber's affairs acted promptly and vigorously by entering into a campaign for new business and industrial concerns. Needless to say the effort was not carried on at random. Much to the contrary it was carefully and thoughtfully managed in order to make sure that the things accomplished would be of substantial value to the city. As a result the industries acquired are of the type most likely to be enduring and successful and adaptable to the facilities which Marion has to offer. That is a circumstance which adds much to the year's record of the Chamber of Commerce and which is likely to make it stand as a high spot in the history of Marion's economic development. Too often cities in their quest for expansion allow enthusiasm and eagerness to sidetrack exercise of caution and good judgment with the result that industries are acquired which have scant prospects of long life. Sometimes such business enterprises are not suited to the location selected for them and sometimes they would be doomed to early failure regardless of location. Under either circumstance the point is that any city acquiring such an industry has taken on a liability instead of an asset and is certain to suffer a loss in the end.

So Marion owes thanks to the Chamber of Commerce not only because it built up the city's industrial resources during 1936 but because every possible means was employed to make sure that those resources will be permanent. It was a job well done in every detail.

Acquiring new industries is by no means the only reason for calling tonight's event a victory dinner. The industrial establishments already here those which have made Marion's advancement and growth of the past possible have been operating on a steadily increasing scale and all indications point to a continuance of that situation. This, coupled with the opening of additional factories certainly provides a most auspicious setting for a community celebration.

And the occasion is made especially cheerful by realization that it marks not just the culmination of a year of progress but also presages continued achievements in the years ahead.

Effective Flood Control.

Universal desire to do something about the Ohio valley flood disaster is finding an outlet in generous donations of money supplies and other aid to flood victims. Everything which can be done to ease their plight is being done.

Legislators are demanding action to prevent recurrences of the disaster. Interest in flood control has received a strong impulse from the unprecedented damage done this year by the raging river—an even stronger impulse than was received in 1936.

It's time to realize that limitations on speedy and direct measures of flood control exist. Chief of them is reluctance of the public and legislators to face squarely what would be entailed in a program of flood control sufficient to protect any great river valley from a major flood.

It would necessitate a coordinated plan which does not exist at present. There would need to be a more comprehensive [illegible] of information about floods and [illegible] than ever has been made [illegible] amounting to many billions [illegible] would have to be obtained from a congress handicapped by sectional jealousy.

With all these things made possible it still would be at least a decade before effective flood control in the Ohio valley could be realized. It would be much longer before a national program of flood control could be worked out. If the nation really wants effective flood control it can't make up its mind too soon.

Sincerity Guaranteed.

Japanese politics like a Russian trial for treason is a puzzle to western minds. But perhaps Japan has some good ideas.

For instance in the current Tokyo crisis there is much talk about hara-kiri among politicians who are abusing each other. The idea is that the politician who can't back up his statements with proof is obliged under the Japanese code of honor to do away with himself.

This sort of thing gives an unpleasant intensity to Japanese politics but it's hard to evade the feeling that it keeps the practicing politician much closer to the truth than they would be inclined to travel otherwise and are inclined to travel in countries where hara-kiri is frowned upon as a relic of barbarism.

Including Depressions

In the record of secret hearings on the deficiency relief bill the following surprising statement by Harry L. Hopkins WPA chief came to view.

For the more distance future when prosperity levels materially exceed those of 1929 it appears that four to five million unemployed will be the minimum. This minimum can be expected to increase with each recurring depression—and the recurrence of depression appears as an unavoidable feature of the present economic order in this country.

Mr Hopkins also said that while recovery was in its fourth year of steady improvement he doubted it would continue uninterruptedly for three or four more years.

It's possible these were slips of the tongue. On the other hand Mr Hopkins has come to be known as a fellow who doesn't believe in kidding. It's his job to think about [illegible] think about them realistically and that makes it seem likely he was thinking and talking straight.

So unless denied his statement must stand as the first admission by a highly placed official of the new order that it's really nothing more or less than the old order including recurrent depressions with a new name and the addition of a permanent unemployment total of not less than 4,000,000 persons.

Sit-Down Strikes the Main Issue

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright 1937 by The Marion Star

WASHINGTON Jan 28 [illegible] attempts [illegible] of years a few days ago but administration officials now are trying to get them to fight the battle in the court of public opinion over the main [illegible] strike.

Through conferences with the press official and unofficial disapproval has been voiced on some phases of the pronouncements of both sides in the main strike controversy but in the course of such comments an amazing piece of information has been released by the secretary of labor namely a virtual defense of sit-down strikes.

Miss Perkins told the press that the legality of sit-down strikes had not been determined and she referred in effect to them as relating to some abstract legal concept. Her viewpoint is that sit-down strikes are something that really are legalistic questions and hence should be sidetracked in a negotiation of a settlement of the strike.

But the truth is the sit-down strike is the paramount question at issue. It transcends all others. Either the plants that have been seized by the sit-down strikers belong to the stockholders of General Motors or they belong to the strikers. Such a question is not one of legality or illegality in a civil sense but of trespass seizure and extortion within the meaning of the criminal law.

Property Owners Handicapped

The General Motors officials who declined to go to Washington to attend the conference at the office of the secretary of labor could well have had in mind that they were not authorized to negotiate for the use of properties which had already been taken from them. When they get their properties back they can accept Miss Perkins invitation.

If in other words it is proper for a group of employes to take possession of the properties it is also by the same logic proper for them to utilize those properties and begin production themselves which is after all the same kind of confiscation that occurred in Italy and led to the strong arm tactics of the fascist dictator who took control of both factories and workers alike.

General Motors probably made a mistake in strategy in not going to Washington and making clear that it had nothing to negotiate until its property was rightfully restored. The corporation's position would have [illegible] had it agreed to attend any [illegible] and had also [illegible] differences [illegible] to the public. [illegible] taken [illegible] General Motors [illegible]

Up to Local Authorities

The fight is [illegible] wholly within the jurisdiction of the authorities of the cities or states within which the plants are located and all efforts [illegible] must be directed to the mechanisms of law [illegible] in their localities. If the mayors or sheriffs or governors refuse to [illegible] the properties back to the owners by evicting all persons who are unlawfully holding any of the plants or any portion of them then an entirely different situation confronts not only the automobile companies but all other property owners in America and the end of property rights may be foreseen.

It is true as Miss Perkins says that picketing was originally illegal but even today picketing which forcibly restrains anybody from entering a plant is illegal. Local authorities influenced by political or other considerations sometimes refuse to enforce the laws against illegal picketing but that does not make the use of violence or physical restraint any more valid.

The supreme court of the United States has held in one of the famous Coronado cases that a conspiracy to prevent the shipment of goods in interstate commerce—in that instance coal from mines closed down by striking miners—was an interference with federal commerce and could be enjoined.

There appears among well informed lawyers a universal belief that a sit-down strike is not only illegal from the viewpoint of state law but when coupled with a conspiracy physically to prevent the flow of goods into interstate commerce it is also a violation of federal law.

Until however these questions are brought to an issue the negotiations on collective bargaining will take a secondary position. Once the properties are restored to the owners either by the exercise of the police power of the states or cities the negotiations may be resumed with respect to the fundamental issues of what union shall represent the workmen arranging scales of wages and hours.

Little Rest for Army Fliers

BY SAM JACKSON

Associated Press Feature Service Writer

HAMILTON FIELD Cal Jan 28—Bombing practice is being geared up to 18 hours a day by the first wing of the army's general headquarters air force. More craters are being blasted in the California desert and more splashes raised in the calm Pacific than ever before.

Fliers at Hamilton field across the bay from San Francisco are dropping 9,000 bombs a year on land and sea targets and at least as many are being dropped by their comrades at March field near Los Angeles.

The G H Q Air force is Uncle Sam's aerial striking unit organized in 1935 and quite separate from planes attached to ground troops.

Sights Kept Under Cover

Considerable secrecy attends the maneuvers. The explosions and shell craters are photographed by batteries of cameras that cost up to $7,000 apiece and no one except the technical staff sees the pictures. By rigid order the sights with which the airmen aim their bombs are hidden under canvas before the planes touch ground.

Although both fields are on a war footing their full forces ready to move in 24 hours the intensive maneuvers do not mean that the army expects war. It merely is racing to keep abreast of aviation developments.

Increasing efficiency of aerial killing has forced home the conviction that there's no way to stop a bombing raid. Your best bet is to stage one yourself.

Madrid's Case

We teach that when a bombing attack once is launched it cannot be intercepted says Major Clarence P Talbot a Hamilton Field executive. That is the teaching in all countries I believe. It is the reason planes are able to keep on bombing Madrid even though the defenders know with certainty the raids are coming.

The military problem of charting the approach of an attacking air fleet has been worked out. It requires a phone and operator every eight miles over a band 100 miles wide.

Anti-aircraft guns can be effective but there are not enough of them. I recently worked out a theoretical defense of San Francisco against an air raid. It took more anti-aircraft guns than there are in the whole world.

The United States has developed bombers that will carry one 2,000-pound bomb or multiples of smaller bombs at nearly 300 miles an hour. Such aircraft—the giant Martins now in commission—have two motors developing 750 horsepower each.

Greater claims are made for the four motor Boeings now being turned out and another company (North American Aviation) has a 10-passenger two motor craft with engines rated at 1,50 horsepower each ready for the army competition at Dayton next March.

The army believes the best protection against aircraft is aircraft.

In line with this principle the G H Q air force has pursuit planes that can do up to 250 miles an hour and use machine guns on big opponents. But bullets won't stop a bomber unless they make a direct hit on the pilot motors or by sheer luck a control wire.

France Tests Trailer

Time bombs dropped into an attacking air fleet are being experimented with. France is testing an aerial mine dragged by a plane as a sort of trailer.

A third major group of striking planes is the attack division carrying machine guns and small bombs and directed against anti-aircraft guns and ground troops.

Army airmen are prepared to see the next war start with amazing suddenness in the air.

International law requires that the world at large must be notified before one country starts hostilities against another says Major Talbot. All right what's to prevent a nation starting several waves of bombardment planes toward another's border and then declaring war by radio [illegible] just five seconds before the first [illegible]

President's Position in Strike

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON Jan 28—President Roosevelt has been moving by indirection all through the auto strike situation. His words and actions therefor have caused confusion. He has never cleared his mind publicly on the subject but only emitted a little thought here and there.

Nevertheless there seems to be no inconsistency in his attitude or actions as they are pieced together by spokesmen competent to speak for him. That is his purpose is clear to those who are close to the situation. They thread it together this way.

He and his spokesmen at the start of the strike were strong for John L Lewis believing the agitation would solve or point to a solution of their labor legislation problem. Later Mr Roosevelt is supposed to have been advised (probably by the attorney general) that the sitdown strike method was probably illegal could not stand up in court and therefore could not be defended by the government.

Lewis was then crowding the President for support (Apparently creditable reports indicate Lewis called the White House three times at this stage of the situation and could not get the President on the telephone.) Then came the Lewis blowup against the President and the President's rejoinder inviting Lewis to step out of the headlines for a while.

Later Alfred P Sloan walked out on Miss Perkins and the President seized the opportunity to rebuke Sloan thus evening things up after his rebuke to Lewis demonstrating his impartiality etc etc. He considered this last rebuke very carefully consulted his best publicity advisers as to the probable public effect.

They did not anticipate that this would lead the unwary public to think Roosevelt was first on the side of Lewis then against him then back on his side against Sloan.

That does not seem to be the situation at all. There is every reason now to believe that when the time arrives the President will necessarily fail to defend the sit down strike method without which the strike cannot be effective. But if Sloan declines to confer he is bound to encounter White House wrath.

Air Birds

Some Washington developments are becoming as unfathomable as a Chinese kidnaping or a Moscow propaganda trial. For instance the White House threw down Senator Minton very hard when the senator emerged from the presidential office one day and announced the President would call a wage hour conference soon. The President was supposed to be very angry about Minton's erroneous announcement and was going to call him on the carpet.

Minton has been called in frequently since then but not on the carpet. In fact he has been a frequent night visitor to the executive mansion. Also these visits have not been officially recorded.

The general senatorial cloak room impression seems to be that Mr Minton has become a presidential trial balloonist. He appears to have joined the secret circle of lighter than air statesmen in congress who are cronies of the President and drop in after hours unobserved for the really heavy work of government conferring.

Ists

The terms liberal and conservative seem to have become so mixed up that no one here can tell who's what.

TVA Chairman Morgan the Norris appointee is being roundly denounced as a conservative for espousing a power program which was considered extremely radical no more than a year or two ago. The denunciation comes from his former liberal friends Senators Norris and La Follette who have been convinced by TVA Commissioner Lilienthal that what they formerly favored as liberals is now reactionary.

The truth seems to be there are no conservatives left only liberals. But the liberals have split on this issue like Communists not only into Stalinites and Trotskyists but into Morganists La Follettists Norrisists Lilienthalists McNinchers (Frank R) and even Cookies (Morris L).

Purpose

What will come out of the current Wheeler railroad investigation first is a proposal to break up railroad holding companies. Legislation will be offered by Senator Wheeler before the end of the present session of congress. He expects it to be passed but it probably will go over until next year.

Notes

The only one sure of appointment as one of Mr Roosevelt's six passionate anonyms (if congress lets him have the six more requested assistants) is Tom Corcoran of RFC. Corcoran is to be legal anonym.

Agriculture Secretary Wallace is training for something. He has lengthened his morning walk to the agriculture department and now covers about three miles.

Tenants in Genteel Disguise

BY O O McINTYRE

NEW YORK Jan 28—Three costly apartment houses in as many exclusive areas awoke to find their names in thick headlines this winter. Despite the great caution in tenancy they were harboring with a dress suit flair the come into my parlor motif of the bagnio.

The gentleman who called were limousine larrikens sporting top hats and the ladies who exited with them at varying hours were sabled as though they might be faring forth for opera. Or a late drop-in at one of the satin lined night clubs.

One place had been operating for nearly a year without suspicion when the patrol wagon backed up and trundled away its fashionably dressed load. The damage to property values in such scandalous exigencies cannot be estimated. Many tenants take flight the next day.

It requires months for prospective tenants to forget a call house raid and there are instances where there follows an exodus along the entire block. On that seasoned theory no doubt that a rotting speck will eventually destroy the whole barrel of apples.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28—Secretary Perkins dispatched a representative to Anderson, Ind., today to investigate charges by the striking United Automobile Workers that the General Motors Corp. had incited violence there.

Another charge Porter will investigate, she said, was that the corporation required employes returning to work Tuesday to sign "yellow dog" contracts—agreements requiring them to remain out of the union.

General Motors officials, she said, denied all these charges when she talked with them by telephone.

as a back levee collapsed and put [illegible] to flight.

Engineers said this was the only unfavorable development in the last 24 hours, and divided their efforts between directing completion of the second line of defense on the Birds Point-New Madrid floodway and saving Tiptonville, Tenn., from a new threat.

The 1300 residents of Tiptonville disregarded a warning to flee as the Mississippi threatened to cut a new channel across Snaky bend and inundate the Tennessee city, [illegible] far from Cairo.

Safe so far from being engulfed, Cairo bulwarked behind a 60-foot seawall, expressed confidence it would win its battle.

"Just tell the world we're here and will be for a long, long time," Mayor August Bode declared.

As the flood waters poured into the vast $21,000,000 spillway just below Cairo, engineers said they probably would reach the top of the basin tonight. Expectations are the crest will hit Cairo about Feb. 2 and Memphis four days later.

Problems of restoration replaced problems of life saving in Evansville and other southern Indiana cities. Evansville estimated its damage at $16,875,000. Losses in other cities wrecked by flood waters were incalculable at present.

Smiles greeted hip-booted Gov. Martin Davey of Ohio as he personally inspected the bedraggled city of Portsmouth where 1,000 persons still were marooned in flooded buildings and refused to leave. On [illegible], between 30,000 and 35,000 lived in makeshift dwellings.

FOOD DISTRIBUTION IS SET FOR FRIDAY

Arrangements to distribute 8,500 pounds of grapefruit and 50 bushels of onions Friday to relief families and those receiving supplemental relief in addition to WPA wages were announced today by Carl Campbell, government surplus foods distributor for Marion county.

The grapefruit, which arrived by truck from Mansfield last night, will be distributed at the relief office on South Prospect street beginning at 9 a. m. Recipients will be required to bring their own containers.

The onions, donated by a Marion county resident, will be given out at the city barns on Owens street until the supply is exhausted.

CINCINNATI BEGINS CLEANUP PROCESS

Empty tank cars were afloat in railroad yards.

Official estimates placed flood damage in the tri-state Cincinnati area at a minimum of $15,500,000 in addition to the loss of between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000 in the mill creek fire Sunday.

U. S. Meteorologist W. C. Devereaux estimated the flood damage for Cincinnati proper at between $10,000,000 and $15,000,000.

City officials and relief officials estimated the loss in Covington, Dayton and Newport, Ky., and other northern Kentucky communities in the Cincinnati metropolitan area at from $5,500,000 to $6,000,000.

Twenty-three families were forced out of their apartment building when a fire in the basement filled the building with smoke.

Assistant Fire Chief Edward Shearwood said that three tank trucks accompanied the fire companies to the blaze. Firemen pumped water from the tanks and brought the fire under control with a loss estimated at $2,000 by Shearwood.

The river took nearly 46 hours to drop a foot from the record 79.99-foot stage. The 78.99 level was reached sometime between 1 a. m. and 2 a. m. today. At 9 a. m. it was 78.70. At 11 a. m. it was 78.64.

Devereaux reported the river was falling from Pittsburgh to below Louisville. The weather forecast was for occasional rain tonight, probably changing to snow flurries Friday; slightly warmer tonight, lowest temperature about 32; colder Friday.

Devereaux Gives Details

Still lacking complete reports from his usual reporting stations, Devereaux gave this detail:

Except for some rain in Tennessee, the weather was generally fair over the Ohio valley for the last 24 hours. The fall today in the Pittsburgh district was rapid.

The Ohio river from the Kanawha river to the mouth of the Kentucky river at Carrollton, Ky., will fall slowly tonight and Friday. The fall at Cincinnati will be about one foot in 24 hours, unless rains become heavy.

Readings this morning at other stations:

Pittsburgh 23.1 feet, falling, a fall of 4.9 feet in 24 hours; Parkersburg, W. Va., 53.2 feet falling, a drop of two feet; Portsmouth, O., 73.85 feet, falling, a drop of three-tenths of a foot; Evansville, Ind., 53 feet, rising, a rise of four-tenths; Cairo, Ill., 57.9 feet, rising very slightly.

All tributaries were falling.

Rehabilitation will start as soon as the waters have receded sufficiently to permit work. At the present rate of fall it will be at least several days.

There were a few reports of looting by persons representing themselves as "flood relief workers" and police increased their vigilance. The suspension bridge between Cincinnati and Covington was opened and attracted hundreds of eager sightseers.

sistant state health director, declared the city's hospitals were "no fuller than normal."

"In view of the critical circumstances, I consider the general health of Portsmouth under trying conditions as excellent," said Dr Mahla.

"The rescue work has been done and done well," declared Gov. Davey. "The next step is to safeguard the people when the waters recede. We will make sure that no one suffers and that proper sanitation is assured."

Scanty water supplies were being rationed here and at Ironton, Pomeroy and Marietta, among the other hard-hit flood points. Water was shipped by tank car to several points.

Typical of the digging-in process was Gallipolis. There officials said all persons who wanted rescue had been accommodated and regular patrols and rowboat "taxi service" were arranged.

The "mopping up" process, it was estimated, will take from two weeks to several months, but national guardsmen and work progress administration laborers were directed to remain on the job until it was finished.

EUROPE RUSHES SPAIN'S ISOLATION

By The Associated Press

International negotiations, spurred by Italo-German promises to cooperate, rushed plans today to isolate war-infected Spain.

A neutral blockade of Spanish coasts, to halt spread of the war fever to the rest of Europe, was planned by the London non-intervention committee, using fleets of four great powers concentrated in the Mediterranean.

Details of the plan, considered while the Madrid government forces were reporting new strategic victories, still were indefinite.

$12,000 NEW QUOTA FOR FLOOD VICTIMS

Zanesville this morning from the Veterans of Foreign Wars headquarters.

Young People Busy

Junior Red Cross members are conducting voluntary solicitations in the schools and the Boy Scouts of Marion county and the Harding area are cooperating with the recognized relief agencies in collecting contributions.

All relief headquarters will continue to remain open at night as long as calls come in, and the Red Cross office will be open tonight until 9.

Trucks will call at homes if the Legion is called at 2084, 4126, 4162, 4173, the Army at 7165, or the Veterans of Foreign Wars at 3934. Contributions may be taken to the Legion Dugout on South High street, the Army hall at 403 West Center street, the V. F. W. room at 115½ South Main street, or the Junior C. of C. room at 133 East Center street.

Included in money given to the Red Cross today was $19.60, gate receipts from a basketball game played last night at the Marion Steam Shovel gym by Columbus Coaches vs. Marion Coaches.

Red Cross executive board members and officers said today they could not find words to express their appreciation for "the splendid response that has come to the Red Cross appeal for funds."

Money has come in from individuals, industries, offices, stores, churches, professional offices, schools, federated and social clubs, "from newsboys who have given their weekly pay to executives who have written generous checks."

Forty-seven dollars raised by Osgood Co. employes has been spent buying food at wholesale and shipping it direct to the flood area.

The executive board expressed its gratitude today for the untiring work of Miss Lillian Plack, executive secretary, her assistant, Miss Geraldine Scranton, and all members of the chapter who have volunteered their services since the appeal came Saturday morning.

Ashley Pupils Rush Money, Food

Special to The Star

ASHLEY, Jan. 28—The plan for securing contributions in Ashley school district for flood sufferers is sponsored by the American Legion, Red Cross and P.-T. A. Printed sheets asking for donations and stating a truck would soon call were distributed throughout the village by school children Monday. Bus drivers in the Ashley school district carried this literature to homes on their various routes. After pupils were brought to the school building drivers returned on their routes, collected contributions and returned to Ashley with seven bus loads. Meanwhile trucks in the village had been collecting. This drive resulted in securing $314 in cash, plus food and clothing that brought the donation to approximately $750. A heavily loaded truck and a moving van left Ashley Monday for Columbus.

Cash and Supplies Sent From Galion

Special to The Star

GALION, Jan. 28—With additional contributions made hourly, it was reported today that Galion citizens had contributed nearly $3,000 to local Red Cross headquarters to be sent to the victims of the flood disaster.

Members of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary have been collecting supplies and sending them out of the city to the flood districts by truck. Another truck load of supplies was sent out today. Tuesday, a truck left the Legion headquarters with a cargo of 1,000 pounds of food and 2½ tons of clothing.

Captain I. W. Davis of the Headquarters battery, second battalion, 134th field artilery, has received word here from his commanding officer at Columbus to have his battery in readiness for possible flood relief duty at any time.

Galion aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, voted to donate $100 to the local chapter of the Red Cross for flood relief

Bucyrus Speeds Flow of Supplies

By The Associated Press

BUCYRUS, Jan. 28 — Several truck loads of food and clothing was collected at the special movie held Wednesday afternoon as a benefit to flood sufferers, all of which was prepared for trucking to the southern Ohio district at once.

The cash contributions were boosted to a total of [illegible] Wednesday. Checks are being sent daily by Tom Henderson, county Red Cross chairman. The Salvation Army, [illegible] and fraternal organizations and [illegible] clubs and [illegible] in a [illegible] [illegible]. One local restaurant owner announced that all procedes during the lunch hours from 11 to 2 o'clock today would be turned over to the Red Cross.

Another benefit movie will be held Monday and Tuesday by the Southern theater when food and clothing will be the price of admission. Six trucks of clothing and canned goods collected from consolidated schools of the county, was shipped to the stricken area Wednesday.

BUREAU TO TAKE FLOOD DONATIONS

Farmers and other rural residents may bring in contributions of food and clothing for flood relief to the Farm Bureau offices on Park boulevard, Roland Leeper, manager, announced today. The bureau will then transfer the contributions to the Red Cross and American Legion for shipment to the flood zone.

Upper Sandusky Helps Refugees

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY, Jan. 28 — Local Legionnaires are doing their bit toward relief of flood victims in southern Ohio, Wednesday, the third truck load of supplies was taken to a small town in the southern part of the state. The load included $120 worth of groceries which was purchased from funds collected by Legion members during shows at the local theater and private contributions. In addition, the local post also appropriated $50 toward the relief work while the local Legion Auxiliary has also sent in a check for the same amount.

The truck was taken to the Ohio river Wednesday by Past Commander Rollin Caldwell of Wharton, and Jerome Weinandy, of here. Arrangements are being made to send out another truck of supplies Friday. Two previous truck loads of clothing, bedding and canned goods were sent down Monday. Over $700 has also been collected by the county chapter of the Red Cross, with the original goal of $400 increased to $2,000. In the meantime, other organizations of the county are working in cooperation with the Red Cross in making clothing and bedding and raising additional funds.

15 Truckloads Sent From Kenton

Special to The Star

KENTON, O., Jan. 28—With 15 truckloads of clothing and food already in the flood districts as result of contributions of Hardin county folks, service agencies today intensified their drive for cash and food donations. Clothing is not needed so badly at present, Mrs. Mary B. Mathews, secretary of the county chapter of Red Cross, said.

With more than $2,000 collected by the local Red Cross and some $500 to $600 more taken in at Ada and other units, indications were that local residents would exceed the cash quota set.

Late yesterday Jackson townships farmers brought in a load of foodstuffs and generous cash donations that were turned over to Red Cross and American Legion.

LOUISVILLE PASSES FLOOD PEAK MARK

so a day for the next week, every power at the city's command was thrown into the fight to prevent more suffering.

Authorities were reluctant to admit that there had been any great loss of life. But bodies could be seen piled in rough boxes in boats and trucks, heading for the trenches of the unidentified dead.

There was a heavy guard around the big buildings of the Louisville Medical school, where the better preserved bodies were believed to be waiting identification and embalming.

The cleanup in what is left above water of the low west end accounted in that section for the last of the 20,000 originally marooned there. Many chose still to stay on and take their chances of receiving food and water by boat.

Crews Help South Side

Fleets of boats turned to the south central section of the city, where it is estimated 50,000 of the 330,000 original population live

Though the water spreads through the area to a depth of half a dozen feet or more, there has been no danger of residents drowning.

INCREASING DOSES OF DRUG EASE POPE

By The Associated Press

VATICAN CITY, Jan. 28 — Increasing doses of valerian drops helped ease Pope Pius' pain and permitted him to continue his work today.

His doctors expressed hope that with care they might restore the Pontiff to something akin to physical comfort, although they said the drops give only superficial relief and there is no chance for improvement in his fundamental condition.

DIPHTHERIA CASE AMONG REFUGEES

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 28 — Dr. Nelson C. Dysart, city health commissioner, reported today a case of diphtheria had been discovered among 300 Portsmouth flood refugees sheltered in city hall here.

He identified the victim as Leona Clay, 14, who was removed to an isolation hospital.

FLOOD IS PASSING FROM SCENE HERE

Streams Retreat Toward Banks and at Some Places Are Again Within Bounds.

Marion county's flood was rapidly becoming history today as creeks and rivers reached points well below flood stage and at several places were running within their banks again. Most of the roads in the county have been reopened and by tomorrow night all will be clear, officials in the office of County Surveyor Carl Tozzer predicted.

Dave Hord, government river and weather observer at Prospect, said "We're safe until we have the next one." The Scioto there was at 9.55 feet at 8 a. m. today falling 1.72 feet since 8 a. m. yesterday. Nearly two feet of water still cover the Newman-Prospect road which will not be clear until the river is below 8.50 feet.

At LaRue the Scioto was at 8.15 feet this morning and falling, Observer R. C. Barth reported. It has fallen 1.5 feet since yesterday and now is scarcely higher than it would be after a hard rain, he said.

All roads and schools in and about Green Camp have been reopened as the Scioto fell back into its banks again. Considerable ground water and snow is being held back by cold weather and may cause a strong rise if a sudden thaw comes, observers there said.

KRATZER IS HOME TO SEE NEW SON

Patrolman Takes Brief Leave from Flood Area.

State Highway Patrolman J. M. Kratzer, in charge of the Marion sub-station and now on emergency duty in the Portsmouth flood area, returned home long enough today to greet a new member of his family, a son, born to Mrs. Kratzer at the City hospital Saturday afternoon.

Kratzer was called out on flood detail last Thursday and has been stationed at New Richmond, near Portsmouth, where he directed and assisted in rescuing some 1,400 residents marooned by flood waters. He learned via radio waves that, "You're the father of a six-pound boy," when the child was born to Mrs. Kratzer, the former Miss Mildred Shuster of Ft. Wayne, Ind.

The Kratzers waited until today to name their son, James Warren. Patrolman Kratzer arrived in Marion at 4 o'clock this morning and after visiting at the City hospital and catching "forty winks" of sleep, he planned to return to the stricken area later this afternoon.

DRIVER IS GIVEN FINE AND SENTENCE

D. D. Chase, 55, of 597 Herman street changed a former plea to guilty in municipal court yesterday to a charge of driving while intoxicated. Judge William R. Martin fined him $100 and costs, imposed a 10-day jail sentence and ordered the six months' suspension of his driving rights.

Chase was arrested by police Monday night following a minor traffic collision at Davids and Center streets. A car, which police said he was driving, figured in an accident with a truck driven by R. M. Cheney of 650 Cherry street. Chase had previously entered a not guilty plea at an arraignment in municipal court.

FLOOD RAINS TOP ALL OTHER RECORDS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28—Charles C. Clark, assistant chief of the weather bureau, said today the rains that caused the current floods were the greatest ever recorded in so short a time over such a large area.

Johnsonville, Tenn., had the highest precipitation of any weather station—23.11 inches—in the first 26 days of this month. This was a downpour of 2,611 tons of water to the acre.

Clark said parts of western Kentucky and Tennessee reported more than 20 inches of rainfall for the period. A wide belt along the lower Ohio and the middle Mississippi valleys received 10 inches.

$5,000,000 Relief Bill Wins Committee's Okay

Davey's Demand That Counties Match Grants Barred From Measure in Lower House.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 28 — The house of representatives welfare committee, ignoring administration opposition, recommended a $5,000,000 stop-gap relief bill for passage today. A clause requiring counties to match grants was eliminated.

The bill was sent to the finance committee for approval of the appropriation figure, which was raised from $3,000,000 by the welfare committee. Opposition to increasing the allocation was expected from the finance group.

Administration leaders had opposed any stop-gap relief plan and insisted that the counties match state grants dollar for dollar, but the welfare committee voted approval 12 to 0.

Cite Lack of Funds

Welfare leaders, relief administration representatives of larger counties, and relief commission officials told the committee that many counties had no funds to match state appropriations.

This was the first obstacle to Gov. Martin L. Davey's "no new taxes program."

The governor's lieutenants, however, attempted to rally enough support from the huge Democratic majority in the legislature to adhere as closely as possible to Davey's aim of making local governments shoulder more of their own responsibilities, thus releasing much of the money the state has been paying them in subsidies.

Revenue Cut Opposed

The heaviest fire has been directed at the administration's proposal to cut the counties' share of motor vehicle taxes more than $6,000,000 annually. The money would be turned over to the state highway department to help maintain 5,000 miles of secondary roads which it has taken over.

Nearly 300 county officials flocked into Columbus to protest against the proposal. They contended that the motor vehicle taxes are about all the money they have for maintaining local roads.

Sen. Harold Nichols, Democrat of Clermont county, introduced a bill yesterday which would allocate $2,000,000 under the 1936 formula; $2,000,000 under some formula which would require matching, dollar for dollar and $1,000,000 on a basis of need with matching required.

The senate passed, and sent to the house, a bill by Nichols to extend the life of the state relief commission, which expires Sunday, until June 30.

The senate completed passage of a bill which would authorize county commissioners, township trustees and village councils to spend unencumbered funds for flood relief;

The senate adopted a house resolution asking congress to send army engineers and public health specialists to the flood zone to assist in rehabilitation;

Suggests Flood Relief

The house passed a bill by Rep. Raymond Rutherford, Democrat of Brown county, which would authorize the state administrator of aid for the aged to renew the pensions of flood sufferers at his discretion during the next 60 days, and House members from flood-stricken counties decided to seek federal funds for restoring highways damaged by the high waters. They acted at the suggestion of Rep. John Hayden, Republican of Clermont.

The bill of Rep. Ralph C. Lutz, Democrat of Richland county, to put into effect immediately a law providing for the installment payment of delinquent taxes was passed by the house, 115 to 4, and sent to the senate.

FLOOD WATERS HOLD RIOT TOLL A SECRET

By The Associated Press

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 28 — Dirty, debris-choked flood water in two cell blocks held today the grim secret of the number of maddened prisoners who died during three days and three nights of frenzied rioting in the decrepit 135-year-old state prison here.

"This place was a horror hole even under normal conditions," said Gov. A. B. Chandler after a tour of inspection. "How terrible it was during those three nights will never be known."

Without heat or water, a thousand convicts fought and screamed in blocks A and B. Heavy steel doors were torn from their concrete moorings. Barred windows were battered out of shape.

Then, they were evacuated three days ago along with 1,500 other prisoners. Aged looks lined even the grim-faced youthful convicts when they were removed from the now permanently abandoned prison.

Prison officials, national guard officers and newspapermen fished yesterday in the forbidding water and debris of battered cots, ripped pillows and smashed pans—seeking the bodies of a dozen or more missing. They finally gave up, waiting for waters to recede.

"These cells are the messiest and most horrible sight I have ever laid eyes on," declared Gov. Chandler.

RAIN IS FORECAST FOR THIS VICINITY

More rain is in store for Marion and vicinity tonight and tomorrow after a few days of fair weather, according to the official weather observers' forecast. Their prediction is for occasional rain, probably changing to snow tomorrow.

Slightly warmer weather is seen for tonight, colder tomorrow afternoon and night. Yesterday the highest point reached on the thermometer here was 43 degrees and the lowest 28, Weatherman R. H. Raffensperger reported. A year ago the high was 16 and the low at zero.

RED CROSS GIFTS TOTAL $2,831,361

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28—The Red Cross reported today flood relief contributions totalling $2,831,361. It is seeking $10,000,000.

Among the large contributions were $25,000 from J. P. Morgan & Co., $25,000 from the United Fruit Co. of Boston, and $10,202 from the New York stock exchange members.

REHABILITATION JOB STARTS IN INDIANA

Loss at Evansville Set at $16,875,000; Whole Towns Ruined by Flood.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 28—Flood-stunned southern Indiana took heart today when the Ohio river reluctantly retracted from scenes of the most brutal water attack in the state's history.

Gigantic problems of rehabilitation replaced problems of life saving. The destructive waters had ruined whole towns. Countless thousands of homes were unfit for human habitation. Indiana's 250-mile waterfront was a sodden panorama of mucky devastation.

Damage wrought by monstrous overflows was enormous. Evansville, a city of 102,000 population, had suffered losses exceeding $16,875,000, according to John K. Jennings, civilian advisor to the military and district WPA director. Losses in a score of stricken towns were incalculable at present.

Adj. Gen. Elmer F. Straub, who has mobilized his full force of 4,800 national guardsmen for flood duty, said "our biggest job has not yet started." At least 75,000 persons were homeless.

Married Comrades

BY ADELE GARRISON

Katherine Goes to Bid Her Lover Good-bye

I MENTALLY saluted Katherine's poker face as she listened to Dr Gates' mandate that when Hal Meredith thought it advisable for her to leave the hospital she must go away No one could have guessed what I knew that the decision was one which lifted an almost intolerable burden from her heart

"Thank you Dr Gates" she said in clear quiet tones "I shall know now what to do"

"And I am sure you will do exactly the right thing" he said smiling and then he bowed himself away from us Katherine waiting until he was safely out of earshot and eyesight clutched my arm

"What did he tell you?" she asked tensely "The same thing?"

"Yes only more so" I answered "He was very emphatic in his assertion that you must leave the hospital almost at once because Dr Meredith has made up his mind that you would be injured in some way by remaining I gather that Hal is rather a stubborn individual and that crossing his will at this particular juncture might have serious results in Dr Gates' opinion"

Katherine Piqued?

"He always was stubborn" Katherine said absently and then she struck her hands together with a forcible gesture

"Oh what a release this is!" she said "But I must not let Hal guess that When does he want to see me to say goodby? Or perhaps he would rather not see me again"

There was something indefinable elusive in her voice which made me wonder if down deep in her subconscious there was not a queer perverse feeling of pique at Hal Meredith's decision to send her away from him But it was only an idle speculation one I told myself fiercely utterly unworthy of consideration My self scorn made my answer to her question quick and incisive

"What utter nonsense" I said "You know better than that And I have the answer ready for you He wishes to see you at once Shall I go over now and ask Miss Haskell if he is ready for us?"

"Please And Madge—" she faltered—and I finished her unspoken question

"He has asked that no one save me shall be in the room while he talks to you" I said "And I do not think you need to have me tell you that I shall be practically out of sight and earshot That room is a large one you know"

"And you should know that I would not mind your hearing every word said" she returned spiritedly

Hal Is Ready

"I do know it" I retorted "But I imagine that Hal might feel easier if he thought that I was beyond hearing and vision"

"He might but I doubt it" she answered "But I won't quarrel with you about it I'll just wait here patiently until you summon me"

I left her and crossed again to the room where Hal Meredith lay Miss Haskell gave me a swift affirmative to my question

"By all means have her come right over" she said "He is anxiously awaiting her and I don't want him to get jittery I wonder if you'd mind relieving me for a bit while she's there She probably would feel easier if there were someone within call and there is something most important calling me"

If I had not been so tensely anxious I would have smiled at her [illegible] tactfulness But I only said politely "Of course I'll stay with her while you're gone" Then I lifted a beckoning forefinger to Katherine and she came swiftly toward me Miss Haskell pushed back farther the door she had left ajar and spoke gaily through it

"Here they are Dr Meredith I'll leave you to their tender mercies although I'm very doubtful of my wisdom in thus abandoning you"

How to Make Better Cough Remedy Than You Can Buy

A Big Saving, and It's So Easy! No Cooking!

Cough medicines usually contain a large quantity of sugar syrup—a good ingredient but one which you can easily make at home Take 2 cups of granulated sugar and 1 cup of water and stir a few moments until dissolved No cooking No trouble at all

Then get from your druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex pour it into a pint bottle and add your syrup This gives you a full pint of truly wonderful medicine for coughs due to colds It is far better than anything you could buy ready-made and you get four times as much for your money It lasts a long time never spoils and children love it

This is positively the most effective quick acting cough remedy that money could buy Instantly you feel it penetrating the air passages It loosens the phlegm soothes the inflamed membranes and makes breathing easy You've never seen its equal for prompt and pleasing results

Pinex is a concentrated compound of Norway Pine the most reliable soothing agent for throat and bronchial membranes Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way

ASSEMBLY GETS FLOOD OF BILLS

Belmont Lawmaker Would Swell Industrial Board to Five Members.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 28—In the continuing flood of new bills before the legislature today was one by Sen. Emerson Campbell, Democrat of Belmont, chairman of the state finance committee, calling for increasing the state industrial commission from three to five members.

One of the new members would represent employers, and one employes, each serving six years under appointment by the governor. Campbell said the present three-member commission was overburdened.

At the opposite end of the long list of proposals were bills, recommended by the house conservation committee, to fix a 50-cent fee for non-resident fishing licenses and to require hunters to wear license numbers on their backs. The present law requires a $1 fee for fishing with rod and reel. This price would be maintained for non-residents.

Sen. Don R. Thomas, Democrat of Montgomery, proposed a bill to classify whisky warehouse receipts as securities and require $500 license fees of dealers.

Other bills introduced included:

Lowering of old age pensions eligibility from 65 to 50 years, proposed by Rep. Charles E. Justus Democrat of Franklin.

Bills by Rep. Gus Kasch, Democrat of Summit, to permit taxpayers to sue for money due to any publicly owned utility, to authorize appointment of receivers for publicly owned utilities and political subdivisions under certain conditions, and to cancel corporate charters of all Chambers of Commerce.

A unicameral legislature proposal by Kasch and Rep. G. H. Thorne, Democrat of Greene.

A measure by Thorne to postpone real estate appraisals, due this year, until 1942.

Setting up of uniform interstate extradition proceedings, suggested by Sen. W. F. Garver, Democrat of Holmes.

And to exempt interurban concerns from all except real estate and special assessment taxes, by Sen. John P. Bower, Democrat of Logan, who represents the district which includes Marion county.

Kasch also called for a legislative inquiry into campaign charges that Gov. Martin L. Davey "laid tribute of $3 on each case of whisky sold."

REV. OSCAR ADAM WILL SPEAK HERE

Rev. Oscar Adam, pastor of the First Methodist church at Sheboygan, Wis., will be a guest speaker when the Rotary club meets for its weekly luncheon Tuesday, and the same night will address members of the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs at their monthly meeting. The public is invited to join the federation for the evening meeting which will be held at Central Christian church.

Prior to taking up his study for the ministry Rev. Adam was affiliated with the teaching staff at Marion High school as dramatic coach. He will go from Marion to Delaware to speak at the chapel service at Ohio Wesleyan university.

KLEINMAIER TAKES INSURANCE AGENCY

Will Represent Company in Four Counties in This District.

George G. Kleinmaier has been named district manager of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Philadelphia and next week will open offices at 125½ South Main street. Announcement of Mr. Kleinmaier's affiliation with the company and his appointment as district manager was made today by Robert P. Gyzh, general agent in charge of the Central Ohio general agency, with headquarters in Columbus.

Mr. Kleinmaier will be in charge of Marion, Morrow, Crawford and Delaware counties. In announcing his plans he said he would place several representatives in Marion county and in enlarging the work would establish representatives in Galion, Bucyrus, Mt. Gilead and other surrounding territories.

Prior to joining the Penn company, Mr. Kleinmaier was engaged in the insurance business. He formerly was associated with the Kleinmaier Bros. men's store here, and also was associated with Mandel Bros. in Chicago, and the A. May & Sons Co. in Grand Rapids, Mich.

YOUR INCOME TAX

No. 4

Who Must File Returns

Returns are required of every single person who for the year 1936 had a gross income of $5,000 or more or a net income of $1,000 or more and of every husband and wife living together who for the year 1936 had an aggregate gross income of $5,000 or more or an aggregate net income of $2,500 or more. Widowers, widows, divorcees, and married persons separated by mutual consent are classed as single persons. The personal exemptions are $1,000 for single persons and $2,500 for married persons living together and for heads of families.

Husband and wife living together may make separate returns of the income of each, or their income may be included in a single joint return. If separate returns are filed, one may not report income which belongs to the other, but must report only the income which actually belongs to him. If a joint return is filed, such return is treated as a taxable unit, and the income disclosed is subject to both the normal tax and the surtax.

Husband and wife may elect each year whether to file a joint return or separate returns. Where, however, joint or separate returns have been filed for a particular year, neither husband nor wife may after the due date of the return file an amended return or returns on a different basis for that year.

LAST OF READING LECTURES SATURDAY

Dr. Lou LaBrant Will Speak at Central

The last of a series of lectures of special interest to teachers of reading will be given Saturday morning at the Central Junior High school auditorium by Dr. Lou LaBrant of the University school in Columbus. Dr. LaBrant will speak on the subject of reading from the standpoint of the senior high school instructor.

The lectures are being sponsored by the county schools but are open to anyone interested in teaching reading.

Following the Saturday morning lecture there will be a luncheon at the Hotel Harding for teachers. Reservations for the luncheon may be made at the office of Supt. D. T. Mills before 5 p. m. Friday afternoon. The telephone number is 2518.

GALES OFF EUROPE CLAIM 52 LIVES

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Jan. 28—Storms raging across Europe from the North Sea to Gibraltar claimed a toll of 52 lives at sea today.

Thirty men were believed lost aboard the French trawler Loretto and 16 on the British trawler Amethyst, both of which flashed distress signals. Hope was abandoned that either ship could remain afloat.

The crew of four on the tug Toxteth was reported drowned in the Mersey river, near Liverpool.

PIE-EYED PROWLER

By The Associated Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 28—Mrs. E. A. Hardy is justly proud of her ability as a cook. A burglar ransacked the Hardy home. Numerous values lying around were left untouched. The only thing missing was a pumpkin pie, freshly baked by Mrs. Hardy.

Although Brazil is the original home of the tree of which virtually all of the world's rubber is obtained it produces only about 1.5 per cent of the total production.

NOW EASY TO TAKE OFF POUNDS-INCHES

Mrs. Florence Colwell, 1112 Stockton St., Flint, Mich.: I have taken Korjena for a few weeks and have lost 34 pounds without dieting. Have had no harmful effects. Korjena is certainly the safe way to reduce. I am delighted with the results, because I feel and look much better, after losing so many pounds.

No matter how hard you have tried to reduce without good results, you owe it to yourself to try Korjena, the famous fat reducer.

We recommend and sell Korjena Tablets because they are a scientific enemy to fat. They dissolve the fat, making it become liquid so it passes from the bowels through daily elimination. You can actually see fat disappear with the very first two weeks treatment.

It's easy, simply take one tiny Korjena Tablet after each meal. EAT WHAT YOU WANT but eat moderately, no violent exercise, no tiresome waiting, no strict diet. Soon you will see a decided change. Ugly surplus fat where most prominent gradually disappears leaving your skin smooth and firm.

Enjoy the sensation of seeing that burdensome fat just melt away. Surprise your friends by having a trim and slender figure. Korjena is Guaranteed SAFE—it's harmless and not expensive. Don't wait, give this marvelous reducing treatment a trial.

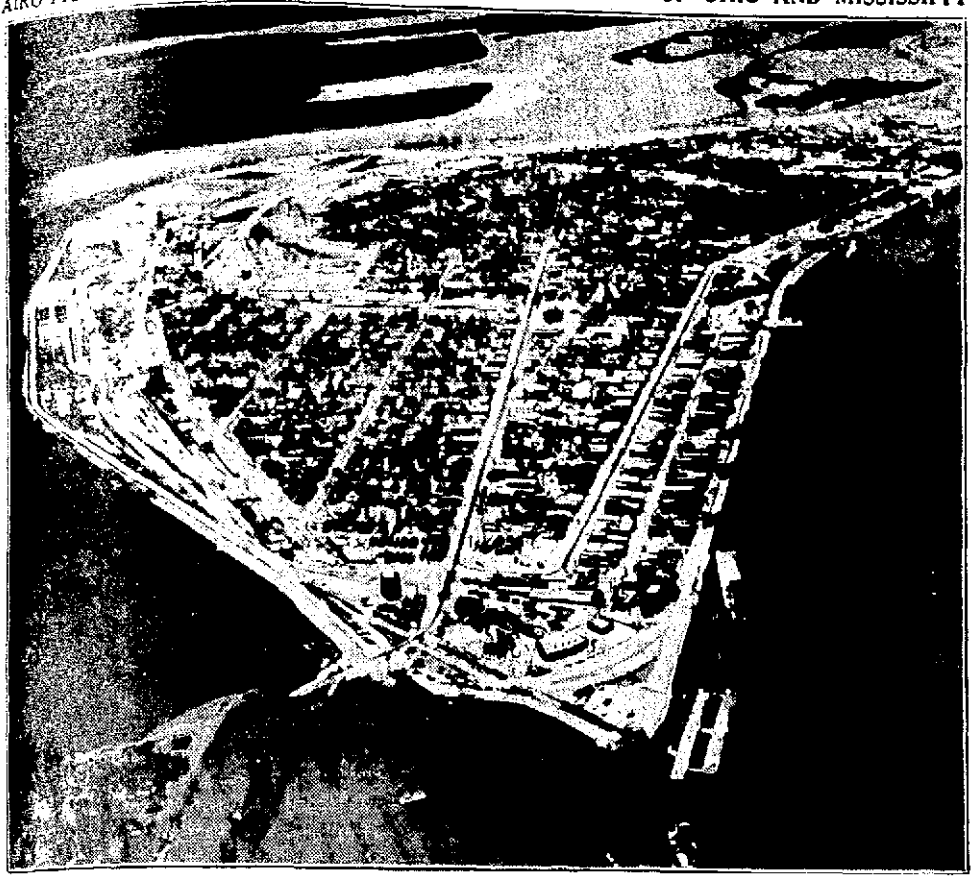
Rescue and Relief Workers Perform Heroic Service in Flood Areas

CAIRO FIGHTS FRANTICALLY TO STAVE OFF FLOOD WATERS OF OHIO AND MISSISSIPPI



The precarious location, during high water of Cairo, Ill., a city of 15,000 at the confluence of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, is strikingly shown in this aerial photograph. On the right is the Ohio, now nearly to the top of a 60-foot seawall which protects the city. On the left is the Mississippi. With women and children evacuated, the men of the city worked frantically to build up the wall with sand bag bulkheads. The river dropped slightly at Cairo after levees were purposely dynamited below the city, permitting flood waters to enter a huge flood basin. (Associated Press Photo)

BOX CAR IS THEIR HOME IN FLOOD

Driven from their homes by the mighty Ohio river flood, these children of Kennett, Mo., are living temporarily in barren box cars along a siding in the southwestern Missouri town. Inside this car a stove has been set up and they manage to keep warm while waiting for the flood waters to subside. (Associated Press Photo)

CINCINNATI BALL PARK AWASH

Only the uppermost seats in the grandstand at the Cincinnati Reds' baseball park remained above the water line when the Ohio river submerged it in its rampage over the city. (Associated Press Photo)

IT'S HIS "WORST" FLOOD

Survivor of six floods during his colorful career as steamboat man on the Ohio river, Charles Spencer, 75, paused from warming his feet against a radiator at the Indianapolis flood refugee camp long enough to opine that the present rampage of the Ohio river was the worst in his memory. He was rescued at Jeffersonville, Ind., after a companion had drowned in attempting to swim to safety. (International News Photo)

BREWERY GIVES WATER—NOT BEER

Residents of Cincinnati, driven from their homes by angry flood waters of the Ohio river, are shown lined up with buckets, bottles and jugs in front of a brewery, but it was water, not beer, they sought. With failure of the city's water supply, the brewery provided clear spring water for all comers. (Associated Press Photo).

RESCUE SCENE IN JEFFERSONVILLE, IND.

PREDICTED FLOOD

Here is W. C. Devereaux, 62, United States weather bureau meteorologist, and the nation's outstanding flood expert, at his desk in Cincinnati. He has been forecasting Ohio river floods for more than 20 years and gave warning of the present catastrophe. (Associated Press Photo)

"ROMEO AND JULIET" COMING TO PALACE

Reserved Seat Sale Opens Today for Famed Shakespearean Play.

The production of "Romeo and Juliet," hailed as a masterpiece of art and entertainment, will be shown at the Palace theater Tuesday.

Reserved seat sale opened today. The picture will be shown at road show prices.

One of the finest casts ever assembled, headed by Norma Shearer and Leslie Howard, brings the Shakespearean classic to the screen. Among the supporting players are John Barrymore in the role of "Mercutio," Basil Rathbone as "Tybalt," C. Aubrey Smith as "Lord Capulet," Andy Devine as "Peter," Ralph Forbes as "Paris," Reginald Denny as "Benvolio," Violet Kemble Cooper as "Lady Capulet," Edna May Oliver as "Nurse" and Henry Kolker as "Friar Laurence."

Prof. William Strunk Jr. of Cornell university served as literary advisor. More than a year of intense research was required to recapture the life and spirit of the fabulous Italian Renaissance in setting and costume.

The late Irving Thalberg, one of Hollywood's geniuses and the husband of Miss Shearer, made the picturization of the classic after waiting for 10 years for the opportunity to bring it forth.

Various Marion groups already have reserved blocks of seats for the Tuesday showing.

GRANGE PROGRAM

"What Does Our Community Need the Most?" is the program topic for a meeting of Bowling Green grange Friday night. The meeting has been arranged as a community affair and the program topic will be presented in the form of a discussion. Homer Heller, newly-installed master, will preside for the meeting which will start at 8.

HEARING OF WOMAN DRIVER POSTPONED

The municipal court hearing for Mrs. Bernice Johnson, 27, of Akron, charged with driving while intoxicated, was postponed indefinitely yesterday. The postponement was made, City Solicitor Ralph Carhart said, because J. M. Kratzer of the Marion sub-station of the highway patrol, who made the arrest, has been detailed to flood duty in southern Ohio. Mrs. Johnson was arrested Jan. 19 about one mile east of Marion on route 30-S. She pleaded not guilty at a municipal court arraignment and was later released on bond of $200.

Appropriation Measure Is Adopted by Council

Vote Switch Removes Obstacle to Bill, $250,163 Set Up for City Operating Expenses in 1937.

A snag which developed suddenly at the Monday night council meeting this week and blocked plans for adoption of the annual appropriation of municipal operating funds disappeared at a special meeting of council last night with the result the ordinance was adopted by a vote of six to two

Councilman William S [illegible] one of three council members who Monday night voted against suspension of the rules requiring three readings of the ordinance switched to an affirmative vote last night clearing the way for the two final readings and adoption of the measure which apportions $250 163 42 among the various municipal departments for 1937 operations

Mr Sh[illegible]er who said he still is opposed to appropriation of only 85 per cent of full salaries of elective officials whereas Ohio statutes require appropriation of full salaries said he nevertheless did not feel his objection should stand in the way of the appropriation measure which must be adopted before money can be spent in any municipal department

Councilman Clarence Hart another of the trio who voted against suspension of rules at the Monday night meeting maintained his objections to the ordinance and voted against its adoption He was joined in the negative vote by Councilman W M Fabian who was absent Monday night Councilman Basil Williams who [illegible] Monday night was not present last night

Fabian Voices Objection

Mr Fabian said he was [illegible] [illegible] $1 700 a year [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] funds [illegible] set up [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] explained that [illegible] as well as the failure to make full appropriations for salaries was [illegible] of his reason for voting against the appropriations The total figure the same as paid last year was agreed on by council Monday night when Mr Fabian was absent

The appropriations as approved last night represent an increase of $38 [illegible] 67 over the 1936 appropriations The increase includes a $5 00 addition to the original draft of the 1936 appropriations for use of the city in aiding Ohio river flood sufferers The addition was authorized last night after Mayor Smith said the city already has been put to some expense aiding flood sufferers and that the city may be asked at any time to increase its aid in the emergency

Other increases include the addition of $10 000 each to the salary accounts of policemen and firemen to prevent a repetition of 1936 furloughs full appropriations for hydrant rentals and street lights whereas only 50 per cent appropriations were made for those purposes last year $7 600 for sewer flushing as compared with $710 last year when only emergency sewer flushing was done and the spending of $4 000 among the various departments for miscellaneous expenses aside from salaries

Some Haven't Signed

All salary appropriations are on an 85 per cent of full pay basis although several officials have refused to sign 15 per cent salary waivers Officials who have not signed waivers include Councilmen Shuster Fabian Hart and Williams City Solicitor R L Carhart Auditor J L Landes Treasurer Sherman Haldeman and Municipal Judge William R Martin

The police department appropriation totals $28 812 63 the City hospital total is $45 000 virtually the same as last year the fire department total is $52 804 50 For the sewage treatment works $10 540 was appropriated an increase of $45 over last year and for the municipal court the appropriations total $6 625 as compared with $7 880 02 last year Biggest reduction in the court was cutting the item for stationery and printing ar[illegible] [illegible] from $1300 as yea[illegible] to $900 this year

The treasurer department account was increased from $4 001 to $4 440

COTROVERSY LOOMS OVER COURT MOVE

as [illegible] when Ma[illegible] [illegible] Clerk Harry B [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] mayor's office to consider [illegible] committee might recommend to council

[illegible] make [illegible] effort to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] a proposal [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] court how it should [illegible] municipal operating funds [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] opposition on the ground that would make the court and its employes [illegible] so far as any local economy program is concerned

Declaring the court and its employes had not been asked to consider any more of the [illegible] [illegible] program than any other city department the mayor said he intends to fight the proposal on the grounds that operation of the court should be solely in the jurisdiction of the people who pay the taxes to operate it

Other Departments Cut

We're unable to pay full salaries to policemen and firemen to operate departments that are absolutely essential for the preservation of protection for Marion residents and their property the mayor asserted Last year we were handicapped to the extent of having to lay off more than half of our policemen and a third of our firemen Why should the state legislature concern itself with something that is of no consequence to the state as a whole but which would prevent Marion city council from requiring the court to share in any municipal economies that may become necessary Why should the legislature dictate that court employes be paid full salaries while many of our firemen and policemen would have to be laid off if it were not for a special tax levy voted by the people

We are asking no more of the municipal court officials than we are compelled to ask of other city officials and employes

The mayor also declared the language of the proposal is misleading It calls for changing the bailiff's salary from $900 a year to $1 800 a year whereas city council without compulsion of the legislature fixed the bailiff's salary at $1 500 several years ago and paid that salary until the retrenchment program of the depression years made it necessary to put salary reductions into effect throughout all municipal departments he asserted

While this proposal would lead persons to believe the bailiff is only getting $900 records show that $1 [illegible]30 was paid the bailiff last year (85 per cent of the $1 800 salary) he said Also the proposal gives the inference that no deputy clerk is now employed whereas a deputy clerk is on the city payroll and $1 10[illegible] has been appropriated to pay the salary for that position in 1937

However the issue is far deeper than whether a certain person in the municipal court shall get a certain salary The real issue is the unfairness of possible legislative action that would dictate to the city about the amount of money it shall spend to operate a department that is purely municipal not statewide in its scope

The Marion municipal court was established more than 10 years ago by a special act of the legislature The original act fixed the minimum salary of the judge and the clerk and provided that $900 should be the minimum for the bailiff It also gave the clerk authority to name a deputy or deputies but did not specify any salary nor make it mandatory that a deputy be employed

Formerly Two Deputies

Throughout the history of the court two deputy clerks were employed until last year when the number of deputy clerks was reduced to one

Judge Martin reached at his home today voiced arguments on the other side of the prospective controversy over the proposed amendment to the municipal court act

He declared the amendment was proposed for the protection of the people who need the court and that it is designed to prevent changing administrations from interfering with the operation of the court

He said the present personnel is meager and can barely take care of the multiplicity of municipal court duties adding that it would be virtually impossible to operate the court with less help

Judge Martin said the question of personnel and salaries in the [illegible] has been under consideration for several years and that Marion attorneys had discussed the question in the past with a view of protecting the court against any [illegible] that would impair its operation

He pointed out [illegible] attorneys expressed their wish that the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] be assured by [illegible] a petition addressed to Senator Power and Representative [illegible] asking them to seek [illegible] amendment to fix the bailiff's salary and provide for a deputy clerk

Requires Full Time

When the court was established and the bailiff's salary fixed at $900 it was intended that the position of bailiff be a part time job it was pointed out However the bailiff's job has been one requiring full time throughout the history of court he said

Judge Martin said there have been indications at several times in the past that the court's efficiency might be impaired by municipal economy programs and that the lack of assurance that the court would not be crippled was responsible for the move to amend the city's municipal court act

The court's financial position for 1937 was uncertain until last Monday when the 1937 appropriation ordinance was given its first reading Prior to that time officials had made an effort to induce Judge Martin and Clerk Henry R Stauffer whose salaries are fixed by the original municipal court act to accept 15 per cent pay cuts When they refused there was [illegible] of cutting the municipal appropriation to the amount mandatory by the original act leaving the court [illegible] apportion the total [illegible] selves in any way that [illegible] would have included [illegible] tion for the deputy clerk [illegible] $900 for the bailiff [illegible] conference in the mayor's [illegible] just before council met [illegible] it was decided that all [illegible] the municipal court [illegible] up on a 15 per cent pay [illegible] with the result that [illegible] propriated for the judge [illegible] his salary comes from [illegible] and township) $1,530 [illegible] clerk and bailiff and [illegible] deputy clerk This was [illegible] the appropriations for [illegible] cipal departments

PERT SCHOOL OR PLAY FROCK A TREAT FOR ACTIVE YOUNGSTERS

If you have a hard time keeping this Mary-Jane in frocks, you'll find Pattern 4308 just the thing for an active little girl who "doesn't stay still a minute!" Trust Anne Adams to know that modern youngsters prefer the comfort of full matching bloomers with their school or play frocks, and trim accents that make them look pretty as story book illustrations! This one model boasts long or short puffed sleeves, front and back pleats and six pert buttons—all topped by an enchanting Eton collar that's flattering as can be. Best of all, mother won't have a bit of trouble making this frock, for complete instructions are included to show her every step of the way. Smart in printed cotton.

Pattern 4308 is available in sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6 takes 2⅜ yards 36 inch fabric, and ¼ yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly size, name, address and style number.

Ready for you—the new Anne Adams pattern book! Order your copy toay, and make fashion news in your "set" with a gay wardrobe, easily made! Cut a fine figure in slimming "at home" or dress-up frocks! Win admiration in jaunty afternoon models, party clothes, sports togs and trim suits! Finery for tots and 'teens, too—as well as newest fabrics! Book fifteen cents. Pattern fifteen cents. Twenty-five cents for both when ordered together.

Send your order to The Marion Star, Pattern Department, 243 W. 17th St., New York, N. Y.

OH, MAC, I'VE BEEN WAITING FOR YOU—I WANT TO FINISH THAT LETTER I STARTED TO READ TO YOU—IT'S SO TOUCHING IN SENTIMENT, I WANT YOU TO HEAR IT
WHY SHOULD I LISTEN TO A LETTER TO YOU FROM SOME OTHER GUY? AND BESIDES, YOU SAID YOU LOVED HIM
CERTAINLY I LOVE HIM, BUT IT'S A DIFFERENT KIND OF LOVE—A BEAUTIFUL LOVE—I'LL GIVE YOU THE LETTER AND YOU CAN READ IT, YOURSELF—THEN MAYBE YOU'LL UNDERSTAND
WELL, OKAY—WHERE'S THE LETTER?
1-28
I'VE GOT IT RIGHT HERE
YEAH—RIGHT NEXT TO YOUR HEART—WELL, YOU CAN KEEP IT THERE FOR ALL I CARE

BOSS, JUST OUT OF CURIOSITY WHAT DO YOU THINK OF ABADABA MOTORS? IT'S GOING UP ALL THE TIME!
HMM-M—I DIDN'T HIRE YOU TO ASK QUESTIONS, SIR! ARRUMF—
NO, HE WON'T ADMIT HE'S INVESTING IN ABADABA MOTORS BECAUSE HE'S TOO SELFISH TO LET ANYBODY ELSE IN ON A GOOD THING—HE WANTS TO HOG IT ALL!
BROKERAGE OFFICE? THIS IS BENJAMIN PLUNKER—BUY ME ANOTHER THOUSAND SHARES OF ABADABA MOTORS!
HE'S STILL BUYING—THAT MEANS IT'S GOING HIGHER!

GEE, NEPTUNE - IT MAKES ME FEEL GLAD ALL OVER 'CAUSE YOU AIN'T SICK NO MORE - NOW YOU EAT GOOD - AN' LOOK NICE AN' STRONG LIKE A MULE OUGHT TO LOOK
LOOK AT THE DEAR LITTLE GIRL - SHE'S HOVERING AROUND NEPTUNE LIKE A HEN WITH ONE CHICK - SHE JUST CAN'T BEAR TO SEE ANY LIVING CREATURE SUFFER
AS THE TRUE SHAKESPEARE SAID - "SWEET MERCY IS NOBILITY'S TRUE BADGE"
MY STARS! LET THAT MULE ALONE FOR A FEW MINUTES - YOUR LUNCH IS GETTING COLDER THAN A LANDLORD'S HEART
1-28
HONEST, I'M TERRIBLY HUNGRY, BUT I FORGOT I WAS 'CAUSE NEPTUNE IS WELL AGAIN - GEE, AIN'T IT GRAND?

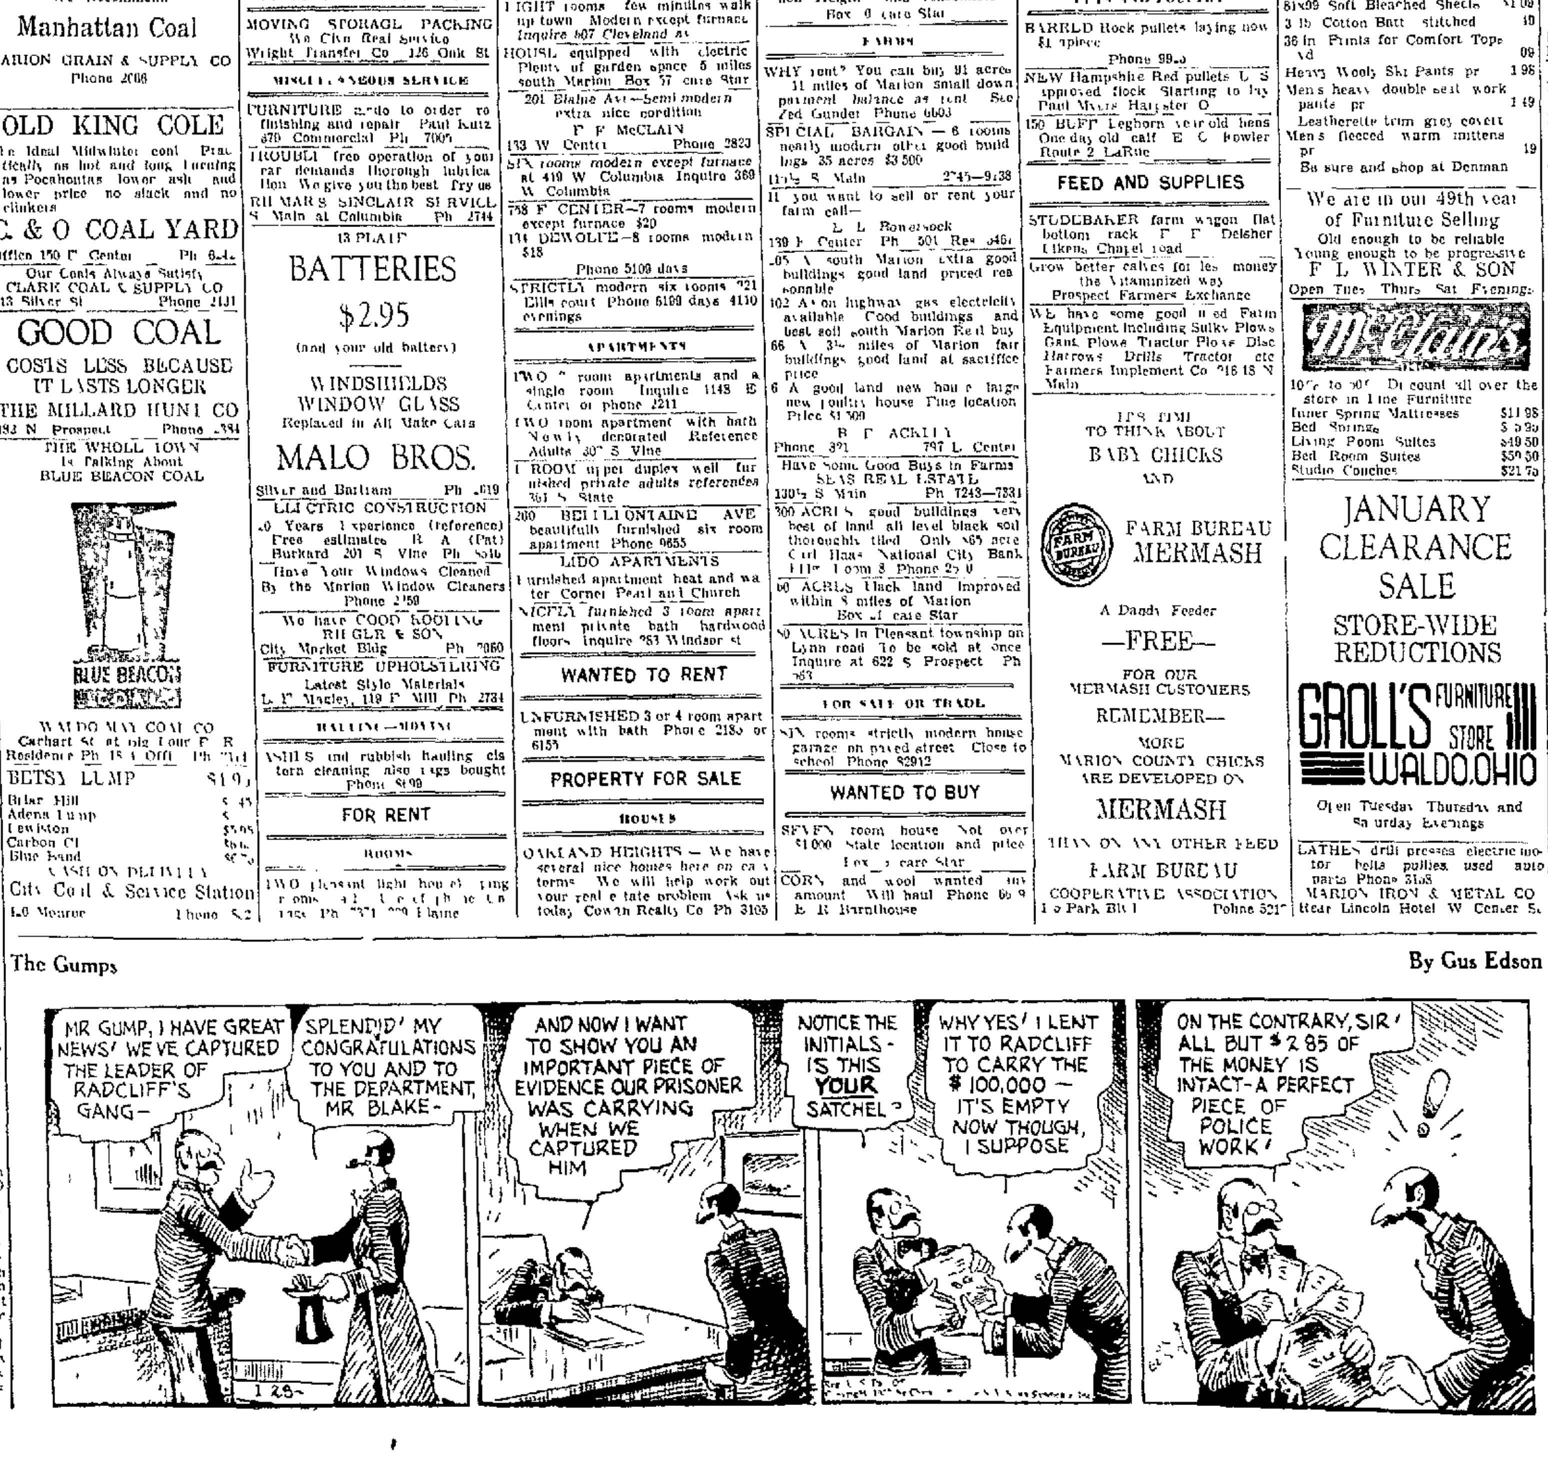
The Gumps

By Gus Edson



MR GUMP, I HAVE GREAT NEWS! WE'VE CAPTURED THE LEADER OF RADCLIFF'S GANG—SPLENDID! MY CONGRATULATIONS TO YOU AND TO THE DEPARTMENT, MR BLAKE—
1-28-
AND NOW I WANT TO SHOW YOU AN IMPORTANT PIECE OF EVIDENCE OUR PRISONER WAS CARRYING WHEN WE CAPTURED HIM
NOTICE THE INITIALS - IS THIS YOUR SATCHEL?
WHY YES! I LENT IT TO RADCLIFF TO CARRY THE $100,000 — IT'S EMPTY NOW THOUGH, I SUPPOSE
ON THE CONTRARY, SIR! ALL BUT $2.85 OF THE MONEY IS INTACT-A PERFECT PIECE OF POLICE WORK!
